Dated 23rd April 1881

From Collector
THE MAGISTRATE OF BELLARY

To, Revenue
THE Chief Secretary to Government
Through The Accountant General Fort Saint George,
Madras

Sir,
I have the honor under Col. 2 Section 102 of the Civil Pension Code to forward for the sanction of Government the following applications for payment of arrears of pension due to the heirs of a deceased pensioner in consequence of their not having applied for payment of it within six months from the pensioner's death.

2 The particulars of the case are as follows
One Venkat Row, late Sheristadar of Kadagally Taluk of this District, who was drawing a Revenue Pension of Rs. 70 a month, died on 23rd February 1880.

3 He had drawn his pension only upto the end of November 1879.

4. His son Sreenivas Row, on the 30th October '80, put in an application before the Tahildar of Alur for the arrears of his father's pension pleading illness as the cause of great delay in his applying for payment.

5. As more than six months had elapsed between the date of Venkat Row's death and that of his son's application, I have the honor to request the sanction of Government for the disbursement to the heirs of Venkat Row of the sum of Rs. 197-8-0 being the amount of pension due to him for 2 months & 23 days from 1st December 179 to 23rd February 1880 both days inclusive.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most Obedient Servant.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit for the orders of Government an application No.
1882 dated the 23rd April 1881 from the Collector of Bellary for the payment of the arrears of pension amounting to Rupees 195. 8. 3 due to Venkatal-Rao, a Superannuation pensioner at the rate of Rupees 70-/- a month payable at the Bellary Treasury.

2. The amount of arrears of pension stated in the above application to be due to the pensioner is Rs 197. 8. - which is a mistake for Rs 195. 8. 3 The difference, it is presumed, is due to the calculation of the amount of pension due for February 1880 at 28 instead of 29 days in a month.

3. As the deceased was a superannuation pensioner, the application is submitted to Government in the pension

pension Department though it is addressed to the Secretary to Government Revenue Department.

Shew the honor to be
