Sir,

In reference to your letter dated 1st ultimo No $\frac{1\ D\ K}{682}$ I have the honor to inform you that the leave taken by M. Changalwarao Naidu from 29th September 1862 to 28th February 1863 was on forfeiture of full pay. The period from 1st July to 25th September 1865 was not leave on private affairs as inadvertantly entered in the application sent to you from this office. Privilege leave was first granted to Changalwarao for 3 months from 1st July 1865 but he returned to duty on 26th September 1865. In the meantime a Memorandum dated 2d Septr 1865 having been received from your office that he was only entitled to one months privilege leave, the pay for the period he was absent which was withheld pending his return to duty was not disbursed to him except for one month. In support of this I beg to refer you to the pay

-abstracts of the Taluq Establishments furnished to you from this office for the Months of July, August and September and to the supplemental pay abstract of Changalwarao for July forwarded on 12th October 1865. I may also add that during this period the service was not counted by any one Else. Also from the leaves statement sent to your office for the month of August 1877 you will find in the Column of Remarks that Changalwarao never took furlough leave, nor leave on private affairs subsequent to 8th June 1863 and that he had 18 years Service. So leave on private affairs from 29th September 1862 to 28th February 1863 will not affect the grant of furlough from 11th November 1876, under clause 2 Section 8 of Supplement H of the Civil Leave Code. He drew half pay during the period of his furlough leave.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Deposes as follows, on solemn Affirmation.

The employment in which I was under Government was permanent from the time I was made Deputy Tahsildar of Relangi Taluk up till the time I applied for Pension. There have been no breaks in my service. Besides privilege leave, I once took sick leave for three months. Besides this I have had no leave.

I cannot Explain why neither my name nor that of Pentapad Taluk appears in the annual returns from 1st January 1858 to 15th December 1859.

During the time of Mr. Lushington Munnapaka Chengalwalarow Nayadu was made Deputy Tahsildar of Relangi Talug. It was a permanent appointment. From then up till the amalgamation of Masulipatam and Guntur Districts he was in permanent Employ. After that he was transferred to Godaveri District and I dont know what became of him. I dont remember what leaves he obtained. The applicant's name does not appear in the annual returns for 1858-9 perhaps because it was Estate Service. Ralangi Talug was once a Zamindary and reverted to Government by purchase. I think that in 1838-9 the Taluq had already reverted to Government.

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith an application for superannuation Pension for Rs 35-8-9 on behalf of Mamapaka Chengalva row Naidu late Tahsildar of the Bhadrachelam Taluq.

2. Chengalvarow's service commenced from 27th March 1848 as Management clerk on Rs 10 in the Collector's office of the late

Masulipatam District on account of Estates of Minors and under Amani which appointment lasted till 16th December 1853. After this, he was without any employment for 1 year 7 months and 20 days (as varified by the Service Register Dept in Kistna) possibly owing to the reduction of the establishment. The applicant puts down that he was in employ as Huzur writer till he was made Deputy Tahsildar of Relangi. However his service till 16th December 1853 does not count for pension, being in an establishment of Estates under management. On 6th August 1855, he was appointed Deputy Tahsildar of the late Relangi Taluq and later on as Tahsildar of Gudivada and Pentapadu Taluqs both in the late Masulipatam District where he served for $\overset{y.}{4} - \overset{m.}{4} - \overset{dy.}{11}$ before the 16th December 1859 when the Pentapadu Taluq was transferred to this District. This period, since the year 1857 and 4 months in 1858 could not be verified by the records of that District owing apparently to the loss of records in the cyclone of 1864. The Collector of Kistna says that the individual's name appears under "Extra" in the annual Returns of 1857 and 1858 but it is not stated why. The Nidathavole Estate, in which Relangi is situate, was at the time under the management of Government having been resumed in 1850, and it had to be given back in 1860. Probably the interim was considered a state of suspense and this was the reason why the applicants service as Tahsildar of Relangi was entered under "Extra" in the annual returns mentioned. Considering that the Estate was then resumed by Government, the period of service, I think, counts as qualifying for pension. It will be observed that the Kistna Collectors remark that the individual's name was shewn under "Extra," appertains also to a portion of the applicants service as Tahsildar of Pentapadu but, as far as I am aware there can be no reason for that office being an extra one. In the order enclosed appointing Chengalvarow as Tahsildar of Pentapadu, there is no mention of that establishment being temporary and ever since the Taluq was transferred to this District with Chengalvarow as its Tahsildar

the Pay Abstracts do not show that it was temporary. The evidence of one of his contemporary employees showing that his service was continuous from the time he was appointed Deputy Tahsildar of Relangi. I am satisfied that Chengalvarow was either a Deputy Tahsildar or Tahsildar on permanent establishment from 6th August 1855 up to the date on which he retired. Then Chengalvarow was in continuous service for a period of $\overset{y}{31}-\overset{m}{11}-\overset{dys}{28}$ of which only $\overset{y}{21}-\overset{m}{11}-\overset{dys}{22}$ is qualifying the rest having been the period during which he was on leave without full allowances, or breaks.

3. The whole of the applicants service in this District from 16th December 1859 down to 17th March 1880 viz $\overset{y}{20}-\overset{m}{3}-\overset{dys}{3}$ from which date he retired has been fully verified by the records of this Office

Office and the statement of verification received from the Collector of Kistna for the services in the late Masulipatam District is enclosed. not recd

4. ✗ Chengalvarow retired on 18th March last. On the 12th idem, I had asked the Collector of Kistna to verify the services of the individual in that District up to 15th December 1859. This information was received in this Office on 26th July last but the man's Service Register did not arrive here till the 30th idem. Chengalvarow reported he lost his Service Register and the accompanying had to be prepared afresh from the papers with him and the records of this Office. Hence the delay in the submission of this application.

5. It would have been better if Chengalvarow's services in Masulipatam were verified by his affidavit and the evidence of some more contemporaries. I asked the Collector of Kistna by telegraph on 12th ultimo, but I have not as yet received them. As however Chengalvarow is entitled only to 1/3 pension in any case, and as the period of his services in this District alone comes to more than 20 years, I do not delay this report any further.

6. I must add that Chengalvarow retired under Rule 1 Section 15 of the Civil Pension Code having exceeded 55 years of age and under Rule 3 of the same section, I considered him inefficient owing to age or infirmity and I called on him to retire, which he willingly did.

7. Lately however he sent me a Medical certificate through the Collector of Kistna where the Zillah Surgeon of Masulipatam certifies that "he is fit for further service"

8. You will see that this certificate is not required under the rules and can be ignored as all that is required is a certificate of inefficiency from the departmental head.

9. For the information of Government I would here remark that Chengalvarow is the Tahsildar of Bhadrachelam, whom the Government wished should be replaced by a younger and more energetic officer

I see no reason why he should not retire in spite of the Medical certificate produced, but if he cannot I recommend his dismissal from the post of Tahsildar of Bhadrachelam from the 17th March last.
