ORDER THEREON, 13th June 1881, No. 541.

Under Sections 61 and 68 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (4th Edition), the Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Gunda Jeggiah, late Assistant Superintendent in Padarti Factory, an invalid pension of Rs. 2. The allowance drawn by the applicant while on privilege leave in 1868 to which he was not entitled will be recovered from the arrears of his pension.

Sir,

I have the honour to return the Service Register of Gunda Jaggaiya, late Assistant Superintendant of Devarampand Station, and Padarla Factory, with explanations on the points noted in the Accountant Generals Objection Memo received with Proceedings No 1417 dated 21st February last, and herewith returned.

Nos 5 and 7 Accountant Generals objection Memo.

2. The omissions have been supplied.

No 16.

3. The appointment was fully vacant and no other person counted service in it except the applicant. He was first appointed acting, and afterwards confirmed in the post without break.

No 24.

4. The applicant is stated to have had 3 months Special Leave on loss of full pay from 4th October 1873 to 4th February 1874 (which counts 4 months but not 3 months). The records of this as well as those of the Collectors Office were scrutinized. They show that the applicant was on duty and drew his full pay during the time. It is, however, clear from the office copy of the leave Statement in the Collectors office that the party who had the leave in question was one Vyapati Veeraraghava Row, Assistant Superintendent of Cuddapah, since dead, and not the applicant.

5th. The average pay of the 5 years has been shown as Rupees 20-11-8 on the following calculation commencing from the 22nd October 1875 to 17th November 1880:—

Asst Assistant Commissioner Nellore District

No. 1 Dy 20 CERTIFIED that (~~subject to the remarks below recorded~~) qualifying service in {inferior / superior} grades has been duly proved for 18 years 10 months and 16 days; and that an Invalid {pension / gratuity} not exceeding Rs. 6-7-10 per mensem, equal to ¾ average emolument, is admissible under Section 61, 68 (6) of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verifi It will be seen from the entry opposite to No. 11 on the 1st page of the application that the Assistant Salt Commissioner recommends the grant to the applicant of a pension of Rs 6-14-10 instead of Rs 6-7-10 only a month - The difference is due to the inclusion in the calculation of average emoluments of acting allowances drawn by the applicant during the last 5 years of his service - The same has been rejected under the provisions of Section 80 (c) of the Code.

The applicant is stated to have been granted Privilege leave from 4th to 31st December 1868, when he was apparently not entitled to it not having served 11 months continuously from date of re-admission in to Government service in April 1868. The allowance erroneously drawn during the leave amounting to Rs 13-8-9 should be ordered to be recorded from the arrears of any pension that may be sanctioned to him by Government.

In accordance with Rule 3 A, under Section 87, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 22 of the Code.
