Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 1008 dated the 24th February 1881, furnishing certain information in connection with the applications for Pensions and Gratuity of certain persons thrown out of employ in the Cuddapah Jail, I have the honour to observe that from the Government Order quoted, it is not clear to what extent the reduction of establishment was authorized, and what amount was saved to Government in consequence of such reduction, and to request therefore that you will be good enough to specify in each application for commutation allowance whether the pay of the applicants was saved to Government or not. Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 1169 dated 26th Ultimo, I have the honor to inform you that the information you require therein can be easily obtained from the Superintendent of the Jail at Chingleput.

The list which accompanied your letter contains the names of Arunagherry Naicken, Narainasamy Naicken and Parasurama Naiken. Referring to the Pay abstract book kept in Court regarding the Jail establishment for February 1867 about which time you State that Narainasamy Naik was employed, I find three names of Narainasamy and again at a Subsequent period I find also three names of Parasuramen. Again these names appear in the pay abstract book from a period long before that mentioned in your list.

3 It seems therefore necessary that you should apply to the Chungleput Jail Superintendent who will with the information he can obtain from old and experienced Warders under him be able to ascertain the exact individuals & the history of their services. The necessary books he may require will be furnished to him from this Court.
