Read order in the Revenue Department, dated 30th May 1876, No. 721.

ABSTRACT.—Considering, with reference to the subject of the preparation of Trade Statistics, that the monthly statement printed for Government and that for the Chamber of Commerce should continue to be published, and sanctioning certain proposals of the Board connected with the subject; disagreeing with the Board that the monthly abstracts of trade proposed to be published by them can be dispensed with; and expressing a desire that every endeavour should be made to publish the return as soon after the close of each month.

COMMUNICATED to the Collector of Sea Customs, Madras, for his information and guidance.

2. The Board do not think that the Clerks employed in furnishing returns to the Chamber of Commerce will have time to render assistance to the Collector's General Establishment, and even if they can aid to a certain extent, the establishment recommended by the Board in their Proceedings, dated 26th June 1876, No. 1,632, still appears to be necessary.

of arrangement is conspicuous. Foreign and coasting trade are mixed up together; the imports and exports are sometimes entered under countries, and sometimes under the ports as shown in the margin; articles are recorded under varying denominations, such as piece goods by corges, pieces, packages, and dozens, instead of yards; tobacco, by cases and cwts.; horns, by number and cwts.; and much needless trouble seems to be taken in recording quantities which are of no use as a guide to the progress of trade, such as casks, crates, and cases of earthenware; cases of books; cases, dozens, and bundles of agricultural instruments; packages and number of various machinery; number of birds' feathers; cases of condiments and of crockery; packages of furniture and of haberdashery; parcels of jewelry; &c., &c.

Again, no attempt seems to have been made to arrange the articles on the uniform system prescribed for all returns of trade: precious stones and jewelry are separated; indigo is entered at a different part of the Return from dyes; musical instruments are shown on one page and a piano on another; coal and asphalt are placed under the obsolete heading of marine stores; ponies are not entered under animals; while such unimportant headings as cow-tails and cricketing materials are retained as separate items.

3. It is obvious that, as the Returns of Trade are subsequently compiled in the prescribed form, the work has to be done twice; and I can hardly doubt that, with a little attention to the matter, the books might be so prepared that the statement of Imports and Exports could be issued in a manner admitting of useful comparison with the returns of trade prepared for the rest of India, with the probable result eventually of economy in the clerical labor needed for their compilation.

4. A copy of this despatch will be forwarded to the Government of India for their information.

READ G.O., Revenue Department, dated 15th October 1877, No. 3,103, communicating to the Board of Revenue, with observation, letter from the Secretary of State regarding the want of arrangement in the preparation of the statements of Imports and Exports for the port of Madras.

As remarked by Government the statements referred to by the Secretary of State are those prepared by the Chamber of Commerce from the records in the Collector's office and published under his signature, and not those prepared by the Board for Government purposes. The circumstances connected with the publication of these statements are fully detailed in the papers printed with G.O., dated 30th May 1876, No. 721, from which it will be observed that the Chamber of Commerce consider that the statements in present form are of great importance for local requirements. No alteration in the form seems therefore to be called for ; but, in order to prevent misapprehension in future, the Board are of opinion that the words "Compiled for the Chamber of Commerce, Madras," should appear on the title page before the words "By order of His Grace the Governor in Council."

No. 67. Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India.

2nd May 1878.

No. 14.

MY LORD DUKE,—I have considered in Council your letter, dated the 19th of February, No. 1, (Customs), regarding the preparation of the monthly statements of Imports and Exports for the port of Madras.

2. You explain that great importance for local requirements is attached by the Chamber of Commerce to the issue of the statements in their present form, but that, to avoid misapprehension, they will not in future be signed by the Collector of Sea Customs.

3. The object of the instructions which have, from time to time, been issued by Her Majesty's Government in regard to the preparation of statements of trade and navigation has been to insure uniformity and accuracy, and also as much speed in the publication as is consistent with those qualities, and for this purpose it has been requested that returns may not be issued in different forms, involving, of course, extra labor and expense.

4. It is, however, far from being my wish to interfere with measures that are found useful by the mercantile community; and, as the salaries of the Clerks who compile the monthly statements appear to be paid by the Chamber of Commerce, I will not object to their continued publication in the manner proposed by your Excellency.

5. I must, however, add that many of the defects mentioned in the Marquis of Salisbury's despatch of the 30th of August last, No. 16, might apparently be remedied with very little trouble.

TO THE MOST HONORABLE

THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA.

MY LORD MARQUIS,—We have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Lordship's Despatch, dated 30th August 1877, No. 16 (Statistics and Commerce) pointing out a want of arrangement in the monthly statements of Imports and Exports for the port of Madras, published under the authority of this Government.

2. In reply, we have the honor to state, for your Lordship's information, that the statements referred to are those prepared by the Madras Chamber of Commerce from the records in the Office of the Collector of Sea Customs, and published under that officer's signature, and not the returns prepared by the Board of Revenue for purposes of Government.

3. The circumstances connected with the publication of the statements are detailed in the papers embodied in our Proceedings of 30th May 1876, No. 721, copy of which accompanies. Among the papers of which accompanies. Among the papers just referred to is a letter from the Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce, dated 28th March 1876, from which it will be seen that the statements in their present form are considered by the Chamber as of great importance for local requirements.

4. No alteration in the form seems, therefore, to be called for; but to prevent misapprehension in future, the entry on the title page will be simply "compiled for the Chamber of Commerce," and the statements will cease to bear the impress of Government authority, and will not be signed by the Collector of Sea Customs.

We have the honor to be,
