Sir,

In returning the 7 applications for gratuity on behalf of the marginally noted persons received with your letter No. 2269/353 dated 8 September 1880 I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to have the approximate date of birth of each individual (if the exact date is not known) entered opposite to No 15 on the 1st page of his application, as required by the 2d foot note in appendix A in page 53 of the Civil Pension Code and to retransmit the documents at an early date together with information on the following points.

P. Bhima Rao
I Jogayya
M. Sonnayya
G. Ramabrahmanam
Lakshminarain Patnaik
K. Kagavachari and
T. Chelamayya

1. Why the applicant Bhima Rao is stated in the History of Service to have been promoted from Rs 20 to 24 on 1st November 1877 on while from the Annual Returns for 1876 and 1877 on record in this office he appears to have been drawing Rs 24 from April 1876.

2. Why Jogayya's gratuity was calculated upon Rs 24 instead of on Rs 15 only, the pay of his permanent appointment as Gumashta. If he was confirmed in the appointment, the pay of which is Rs 24, please make the necessary alteration in his Service Book and also explain why his permanent appointment while acting) as classifier is shewn in column 3 page 4 of the Service Book as Assistant Writer instead of Gumashta when he appears to have been only acting in the former appointment.

actu

3. In the History of Service of M. Somayya the appointment of Classifier on Rs 24 in which he was acting from 1st February to 30th June 1880 was shewn as "fully vacant" from 1st May to 30th June 1880. If so, please explain fully how the vacancy occurred, and why the applicant was not confirmed in it.

4. On what grounds the service as apprentice rendered by G. Ramabrahmam Lakshminaram Patnaik K. Ragavachary and M. Somayya from 1st June 1874 to 31 January 1875, 10 December 1873 to 31 August 1874, 9 June 1874 to 31 August 1876 and from 1st November 1876 to 31 January 1877 respectively was considered as pensionable while such Service does not, under Section 19 of the Civil Pension Code, qualify either for Pension or Gratuity. If the applicants were specially allowed by Government to count such service for Pension, Copy of the Order should be forwarded to me for information. If not, necessary alterations should be made both in the length of applicants' Services and in the amount of Gratuity which each of the first three individuals is entitled to.

5. Why the father's name of G. Ramabrahmam is entered as Nagaswaraswami in the application and Nagannah in the Service Book herewith forwarded.

6. Whether the appointment of Peon on 6 Rs to which the applicant T. Chelamayya was reduced on 1st November 1875 was fully vacant at the time. If so, why he was not at once confirmed in it. If not, why his previous Service was considered as qualifying while the same would appear to have been vitiated by his transfer from qualifying to non-qualifying Service, which is equivalent to dismissal. If the applicants' former service be rejected, the period of his subsequent service will amount to less than 5 years, depriving him of any retiring allowance admissible under Section 36 of the Civil Pension Code.

When returning the documents, please insert the date of application opposite to No 18 on the 1st page of each of the applications of J. Jogayya and Lakshminaram Patnaik.

The favor of a very early reply is solicited.

Sir

With reference to your endorsement of the 3rd November last No. 2691/507 on the Accountant General's letter No. 4048/587 dated the 20th October, I have the honor to offer the following explanation therein called for.

2. The date of birth of each of the marginally named individuals has been duly entered opposite to col: 15 on the 1st page.

X V. Bhima Row
J. Jogayya
M. Somayya
G Ramalirhmam
Lakshminarayana Patnaik
K. Rajanachari
and T. Chelmah.

3. To make room for a new comer, Bhima Row was nominally promoted as classifier on Rs 24 in November 1874 but he was allowed to draw only Rs 20, showing a saving of Rs 4 in the pay bill till the 1st November 1877

Para 1

1877 from which date he drew ful
pay. A remark in the office co of the annual return of 1876-77 app against the names of this man and 3 others to the following effect. "The men get only Rs 20". Consequently the entry made in the history of his services is correct.

4. It was a mistake to count Josayyas gratuity on the rate of Rs 24. As he was confirmed in Assistant Writer post on a salary of Rs 20 on the 1st June 1879 his gratuity should have been calculated on the latter sum and not on Rs 15 as stated in the let under reply. The requisite correc has now been made in both the application and service book. Para 2

5. Somaya has subsequently with-drawn his application for gratuity as he has been re-appointed in the Cuddapah Party by Mr. Cox. The Classifiers post to which Somaya was appointed back, became fully Para 3 fully vacant in consequence of the retirement of the original incumbent G. Ramachendrayya from the 1st May 1880. The order of confirmation was not issued through an oversight.

Para 4.

G. Ramalakshmam
Lakshminarayana Patnaik
K. Rajanachari
and M. Somayya

6. The applicants named in the margin were not specially allowed by Government to count their service as apprentices towards either pension or gratuity. They were appointed as Classifiers, but during the time they were allowed to qualify themselves for field work, they were called apprentices and paid a salary of more than Rs 10. They were eventually confirmed as classifiers. Their names were shown in the two annual returns of 1874-75. It was therefore considered that the services of the alone 4 men as apprentices might count towards either pension or gratuity under Rule 1 of section 27 of the Civil Pension Code. If however under the above explanation their claims cannot be entertained, I request that that the necessary corrections may be made informing me of the dates.

7. The father's name of Ramabrahmam Para is Nagasmaraswamy and not Nagamah as entered in the Service Book. It has now been corrected accordingly.

8. The appointment of peon on Rs 6 to which T. Chelmaya was reduced Para 6 on 1st November 1875 was not fully vacant but he was appointed Each for A. Yerrapah a peon on leave.
Chelmaya was confirmed in another similar post on the 20th December following. Hence he forfits all his service.

9. The dates of application of
J. Jogayya and Lakshminarayana Patnaik are entered opposite to Nos 8 on the 1st page of each of the applications.

10. The seven applications and other papers returned with your Endorse-ment are herewith forwarded.

Under the circumstances reported in para 6 of Col. Stuart's letter, the services of the four individuals taken on as classifiers but paid at lower rates during the time they were under train-ing should count towards pension or gratuity as the case may be.

The gratuity application of Mr. Somayya was withdrawn as he was re-employed in the Cuddapah Party and his service book may be returned for transmission to the Deputy Director.

T. Chelamiah not being entitled to gratuity his application was with-drawn.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

Certified that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in {inferior / superior} grades has been duly proved for 5 years 8 months and 25 days; and that a Compensation {pension / gratuity} not exceeding Rs 120 and not Rs 144 as recommended by the Dy Director vide para 2 of Endorsement is admissible under Sections 59 and 68(a) of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified. The particulars required by Rules 1 and 6 under section 59 of the Code are given in the settlement in the remarks opposite to Nos 4 and 5 in the 3rd page of the application.

In accordance with Rule 3 of 4 under section 87, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 22 of the Code.

The delay in this office of nearly 5 months in submitting the application is due to the reply to a reference made to the officer in charge of Revenue Settlement Department in October 1880 not having been received in this office until the beginning of this month.

This application is the last of the three referred to in letter from the Officer in charge of Revenue Settlement No 4 D 1 dated 25th October 1880
