Copy of letter from A Subba Rao Toll Superintendents to the Executive Engineer Mellor Division No 31 Dated 21st June 1881.

In obedience to your order No 141 of the 24th March last, informing me that a gratuity of Rs 75 had been sanctioned for my services of six years, three months and nine days, I most respectfully beg to inform you that I am unwilling to receive it; as I want my services back, so that I beg to recommend me for the same.

I further beg to request that you will be so kind as to favor me my Service Register book which is urgently asked for its despatch by the Superintendents of Works Buckingham Canal, my present superior, for record in his office.
