SIR,

With reference to your reply to enquiry No. 17 made in this office memo No. A.D.K/304 dated the 26th April 1880 in connection with the application for gratuity on behalf of Fakur-ud-din, late Duffadar in the late Cantonment Magistrates' Court, Bellary, I have the honor to enquire whether it was possible to provide a suitable appointment for the applicant if he had applied for it. If not, please state for what reasons it would have been impossible to provide him with an appointment.

As the reason for the applicant's transfer on 1st October 60 from qualifying to non-qualifying service is not traceable from office records, I request that an affidavit and such collateral evidence as may be procurable may be obtained and forwarded, to enable me to determine whether the circumstance under which the transfer was made was not due to resignation or dismissal, in which case his past services will not count for gratuity.—

SIR,

In reply to your letter of the 21st instant No. A.D.K 12, I have the honor to point out, that the party in whose behalf a gratuity is applied for, was the Duffadar of the late Cantonment Magistrate's Court at Bellary, an office only nominally subordinate to me in my capacity as Magistrate of the District, but subordinate to Government direct, as a Court of Small Causes, in the abolition of which I had no

no voice and for the officials of which I am under no obligation, so far as I am aware, to obtain situations. If the particular official now referred to had applied for a vacant appointment in the Revenue Department as peon, his claim would doubtless have received the consideration due to his long service and experience. For the officials thrown out of employ in the Department under my Control I am prepared to find appointments as vacancies occur, but I can scarcely be expected to retain in my recollection the subordinates of other Departments whose only claim on me is that they reside in the District. The applicant has submitted his claim through this office because it is the chief office of the District and the Department with which he was connected being abolished he has no other office to apply through.

2. As regards the saving to Government by the abolition of the applicant's appointment I have to point out that the Cantonment Magistrate's office was dispensed with and as stated in my letter of the 5th June 1880 No 2051 the saving to Government was Rs 926.8.0 per mensem, of this the share contributed by the applicant was Rs 8 per mensem the amount of his monthly pay.

3. I regret very much that delay occurred in furnishing you with the information required, and that the information afforded was defective, but I must disclaim all responsibility for the one or the other. The information required by you in your letter of 26th April 1880 was furnished to you on 16th September 1880 after it had been obtained from the Executive Commissariat Officer; that required by your letter of 23d September 1880 was furnished with my letter of 9th April 1881. The latter could not be supplied earlier because the applicant after the abolition of his post proceeded to Hyderabad and as he had never been a subordinate of the Revenue Department I had no knowledge of or control over his movements. The affidavit required to be made by him could not therefore be obtained from him till he had at his own convenience returned to Bellary.

for
