Gratuities.

Read the following papers :—

From the Collector of Bellary, dated 31st March 1881, No. 1472.

No. A.D.J.-52.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

Certified that qualifying service in inferior grades is reported to have been proved for ten years, eight months, and ten days. But it rests with Government to decide whether the claim for gratuity may, or may not, be admitted since no application for it was made by the applicant for a period of twenty years.

Should Government, with reference to Rule 2, Section 83, of the Civil Pension Code, be pleased to consider that the non-submission of the application alone is not sufficient ground for the rejection of the claim for gratuity and accordingly accept the application, the applicant may be granted a compensation gratuity not exceeding Rs. 16, equal to four months' pay, under the old Pension Rules.
