Pensions.

Read the following papers :—

From the Acting District Judge, Ganjam, dated 4th March 1880, No. 353.
From the Officiating Assistant Accountant-General, dated 24th Aug. 1880, No. A.D.J.—1083.

ORDER THEREON, 31st January 1881, No. 85.

P. Prakasarayudu, formerly a clerk on Rs. 20 in the Sub-Court of Chicacole, which was abolished from the 1st April 1879, then apparently became entitled to a compensation pension of Rs. 6-0-11 for a qualifying superior service of upwards of twenty-one years. Before any such retiring allowance was granted, he was, on the 14th August 1879, appointed second clerk in the District Munsif's Court at Chicacole; but on the 30th September in the same year was removed from that post for no fault, but because it was considered that the appointment in question should be held by an officer already on the Court's establishment.

2. Under these circumstances, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council considers that Puligadda Prakasarayudu is, under Section 60, Civil Pension Code, entitled to the compensation pension of Rs. 6-0-11, which he could have claimed on the abolition of the Chicacole Court, and this is accordingly granted him from 1st April 1879.

3. As the applicant is reported to have died on the 12th April 1880, the arrears of pension now sanctioned will be paid to his son.

4. Copy of these Proceedings will be forwarded to the Government of India for information.

1. As directed in Proceedings of 25th ultimo no: 762, I beg to the said Proceedings, the insertion

in the History of Service, of 26th August 1872 as the date on which the applicant's leave on private affairs commenced being a mistake.

2. As regards Objection 9 in the said letter about 5 months' delay, I beg to report as follows.

30 October 1879. Applicant sent his application for Pension to the District Court direct.

7 December do. It was referred to me by the said Court by Proceedings dated 3rd December which was received by me on 13 December do. Application for Pension in due form was submitted by me to that Court.

10 January 1880. It was returned to me by the said Court for certain alterations by Proceedings dated 8 January 1880 which was received by me on 27 February 1880. It was submitted again after making the required alterations.

The time between the date of the applicant's application and that of the Proceedings of the District Court of 3rd December seems from the said Proceedings No: 1870 to have been occupied for getting the services of the applicant verified: and that between the 10 January and 27 February was owing to other important avocations of my Head Clerk who prepared the application.

3. I beg to remind your Court of my report (dated 15 April 1880 No: 155) of the death of the applicant and of that dated 29 Idem No: 177 bringing to notice the claims of his son Viswanadharao for the arrears of pension due to his late father.
