To

The Accountant General

Sir,

I have the honor to reply to the queries referred to in the above letter.

Query I. The delay in the submission of the application amounts to two months and some days and is attributable partly to the general pressure of work in the office consequent on Census operations and partly to several applications of the kind having had to be dealt with about the same time.

Ny 2 B I A

Query II. The applicant having been employed as Monegar on the Village Establishment from 1853 to 1860, his name does not appear to have been shown in the annual Return of Establishment submitted to you.

Query III. From the leave Returns the leave enjoyed by Anthony Pais from 1st May to 25th June 1861, though originally granted as leave on private affairs for one month, appears to have been subsequently extended to one month and 25 days and converted into sick leave. The leave allowed to him in 1865 was leave on private affairs.—

Honored Sir,

I beg to represent to your honor that although I was ordered to retire from my service by your honor's predecessor on the 1st September last, and my pension application forwarded to the Accountant General Madras, from your honor's office on the 15th December last, I have not yet been fortunate enough to get my pension, in consequence of which I feel myself oppressed to pass my days happily in my old age, (62 years).

I therefore beg that your honor, on a kind consideration of my poor circumstances, will be kind enough to get my pension order from the Accountant General Madras, as early as your honor deems fit.
