From the First Member, Board of Revenue, in charge of the Revenue Settlement Department, dated 14th June 1881, No. 1264-46.

No. A.D.J.-160.

Certificate and Report of Accountant-General.

Certified that should Government be pleased to condone the break in the applicant's service, viz., from 17th to 31st January 1864, caused by certain circumstances which cannot satisfactorily be accounted for by the Settlement Department, qualifying service in superior grades will be duly proved for fifteen years, two months, and twenty-four days; and that a compensation pension, not exceeding Rs. 6-12-4 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, will be admissible under Sections 59 and 68 (b) of the Civil Pension Code, 4th Edition.

2. The Officer in charge of the Settlement Department, for reasons stated in paragraph 3 of his endorsement, No. 1264-46, dated the 14th June 1881, has rejected as non-qualifying the period of service rendered prior to 1st February 1864, and recommends the grant to the applicant of a gratuity only. Since the Government can condone the break which extends over a period of fifteen days only, and since the grant of a pension in this case would seem to be more profitable to Government, this officer has considered it best to recommend the grant of a pension instead of a gratuity as proposed by the Settlement Department. The probable cost to Government by granting pension to the applicant up to date of his death, viz., 14th September 1880, will be Rs. 29-5-10, while by sanctioning a gratuity it would be Rs. 240.

3. The particulars required by Rules 1 and 6 under Section 59 of the Code are given opposite to No. 4 on the third page of the application.

4. In accordance with Rule 3-A, under Section 87, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 22 of the Code.

ORDER THEREON, 30th June 1880, No. 654.

Under Sections 61 and 76 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (4th Edition), His Grace the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Proddutur Somajee, late Peon, Proddutur Taluk, Cuddapah District, an invalid gratuity of Rs. 2. The Government consider that this was a case in which the applicant might well have been retained in the service for the short period required to complete his service for pension.

3. The services of old servants should, as has often been pointed out, be verified before removal so as to ensure their being treated with consideration.

1-2-14 Short for 30 Years

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department, 15th July 1872.

Proceedings of Government, dated 15th July 1872, No. 551.

The attention of Government has been drawn to several recent cases in which Heads of Departments, without assigning inefficiency as a cause,, have summarily removed subordinates under the fifty-five years' rule, when their service fell short by a few days only of the period which would have entitled them to a pension instead of a gratuity, or to an increased rate of pension.

2. The Government of India have already intimated that the rule should be worked with discretion in the interests of the State, as the premature retirement of an efficient officer imposes a needless charge, and, in the interests of the individual also, Heads of Departments should ascertain before removing their subordinates under the rule in question, what the exact period of their service amounts to, and whether their claims to retiring allowance are likely to be seriously prejudiced by immediate removal.

3. The Government resolve, therefore, to point out that the rule should not be enforced in cases where the retention of an individual in the Government service for a brief period will confer a title to a pension in lieu of a gratuity or to an increased rate of pension, without prejudice to the interests of Government.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

No $\frac{ADr}{160}$ Certified that should Government be pleased to condone the break in the applicants service viz. from 17 to 31st January 1864 caused by certain circumstances which cannot satisfactorily be accounted for by the settlement Department, qualifying service in Superior Grades will be duly proved for 16 years 2 months and 24 days: and that a Compensation Pension not exceeding Rs 6-12-4 per mensem equal to 1/3 Average emoluments will be admissible under sections 59 and 68(b) of the Civil Pension Code 4th Edition.

The Officer in charge of the settlement Department for reasons stated in para 3 of his Endorsement No. $\frac{1164}{46}$ dated the 14th June 1881 has rejected as non qualifying the period of service rendered prior to 1 February 1864 and recommends the grant to the applicant of a Gratuity only. Since the Government can condone the break which extends over a period of 15 days only and since the grant of a pension in this case would seem to be more profitable to Government, this office has considered it best to recommend the grant of a pension instead of a Gratuity as proposed by the settlement Department. The probable Cost to Government by granting pension to the applicant up to date of his death viz. 14 September 1880 will be Rs 29-5-10 while by sanctioning a Gratuity it would be Rs 240.

The particulars required by rules 1 and 6 under section 59 of the Code are given opposite to No. 4 on the 3d page of the application.

In accordance with Rule 3A, under section 87 the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 22 of the Code.
