"With reference to the application for Pension on behalf of Muthusawmy Naick, late 3rd class Constable N. 961 of the Tanjore Police Force received with your letter N. 2614 dated the 6th May 1881, please the houses to be removed from the List forwarded in support of the applicant's service rendered in the Revenue Department, which is herewith returned, that certain portions of the service rendered in that Department have not been duly established by office records. It would seem therefore desirable, for the admission of such service, that the course prescribed in rule 5 Section 84 of the Civil Pension Code should be adopted.
