PENSION DEPARTMENT.

29th July 1881, No. 663.

Gratuity.

Read the following papers :—

From the Deputy Director of Revenue Settlement, dated 24th November 1880.

No. A.D.J.-1571.

Certificate and Report of Accountant-General.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for four years, four months, and four days, and that, subject to the remarks below recorded, a compensation gratuity not exceeding Rs. 96, equal to four months' pay, is admissible under Sections 59 and 68 (a) of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified. It will be seen from the history of service that the applicant was allowed an increase of pay at Rs. 4 a-month with effect from the 1st June 1880. It was apparently enjoyed by him for fourteen days only. The grant of such an increase raised the applicant's gratuity to Rs. 16 more than the amount to which he would otherwise seem to be entitled. In justification of the grant the officer in charge of the Settlement Department in his reply, No. 392-116, dated the 19th February 1881, explains that the applicant was not promoted in the ordinary course, but was transferred to a vacant post of the Ganjam Party in view to his retirement on its abolition. The consideration of Government is invited to the point in fixing the gratuity with reference to Section 22, Civil Pension Code.

2. The particulars required by Rules 1 and 6 under Section 59 of the Code are given by the Deputy Director of Revenue Settlement in his remarks opposite No. 4 on the third page of the application.

3. The delay in the submission of the application is explained in the letter referred to in the endorsement by the officer in charge of the Settlement Department, No. 30-2, dated the 8th January 1881.

SIR,

I am returning the Statement of Services of Chintalapalli Honnappaiah of No. 1 Party received with your letter No. 263
127 dated the 21 April 1880, I have the honor to state that the services of the above individual from 21st October 1867 as detailed therein have been verified partly from the Audit Registers and partly from the Annual Returns on record in this office and found to be correct.

As audit Registers showing the names of persons in detail have not been maintained in this office subsequent to 31 March 1876, the several kinds of leave enjoyed by the applicant after that date cannot be verified.

Verified from the Pay Bills in this Office & a remark to that effect entered in the History of Service in 60610.

3/ CERTIFIED THAT (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in {^{inferior} ^{superior}} grades has been duly proved for — // — years — 6 — months and 9 days; and that a Confession {pension} not exceeding Rs 220 equal to 11 months pay, is admissible under Sections 59 & 68(a) of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified. It will be seen from the history of service that the Applicant was allowed an increase of pay of Rs 500 a month with effect from 1st June 1880 which was of the kindly enjoyed by him for 1 month only. The grant of such an increase raised the Applicant's gratuity to Rs 55 more than the amount to which he would otherwise seem to be entitled. In justification of the grant, the Officer in Charge of the Settlement Department in his reply to No 392 dated the 19 February 1881 already submitted to Government with this Office referred to No 1541 dated 17 March 1881 explained that

The applicant was not promoted in the ordinary course, but was transferred to a vacant post of the Garrison Library in view to his retirement on its abolition. Under these circumstances it seems with Government to decide whether the gratuity should be calculated on the pay of Rs 15 or 20 per month.

The Officer in Charge of the Revenue Settlement Department in his Correspondence No 3083 dated the 24th December 1889 advises that the grant to the applicant of Private Affairs Leave on $\frac{1}{2}$ pay from the 6th January to 20 February 1889 from Rs 405 Rs 10 3/4 was a kinda the service the applicant had not completed 6 years service as required by section 6 Supplement of the Civil Leave Code. The amount overdrawn viz. Rs 14-15-8 could not be repaid by him. It should be ordered to be recovered from the amount of very gratuity that may be sanctioned to him by Government.

The particulars required by rules 1 and 2 under Section 59 of the Code are given by the Dy Director Revenue Settlement in his remarks appropriate to No 4 on the 3^d page of the application.

The delay in the submission of the application was explained in the Endorsement referred to above.
