The Witness being solemnly affirmed deposes as follows:—

I was employed as a writer in the Extra Establishment of the D. P. W. at Pollachy in 1863 and the following years.- I remember that B. Narayana Chetty (who is now in Court) was employed as a Temporary Maistry in the years 1864 and 1865.- I don't remember seeing him in 1863. If he had been a maistry in 1863 I would have seen him.- I don't recollect in what month in 1864 I first saw Narayana Chetty and knew him as a Temporary Maistry.- It is possible that Narayana Chetty might have been a Temporary Maistry before I knew him as such and that he might have been employed out of the Taluq, in which case I would not have had an opportunity of seeing him.- I withdraw the statement above made that "if he had been a Maistry in 1863 I would have seen him" as incorrect.-
