From S. JACOB, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Simla, 18th August 1881, No. 2382.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your endorsement, No. 564-A, dated 18th June 1881, forwarding a copy of the Proceedings of the Government of Madras, granting a superannuation pension to Arcot Lutchmana Mudali, late Clerk, Sea Customs Office, Madras, employed in preparing Trade Returns for the Chamber of Commerce.

2. It appears that Arcot Lutchmana Mudali was employed in the preparation of Trade Returns solely in the interests of the Madras Chamber of Commerce (correspondence ending with Secretary of State's Despatch to Government, Fort St. George, No. 14, Statistics and Commerce, dated 2nd May 1878), and that the establishment was maintained only on the condition that its whole cost should be borne by the Chamber of Commerce. This being the case, the pension of Arcot Lutchmana Mudali should be paid by the Chamber of Commerce, and if they desire the pensions of future incumbents to be paid by the Government, they should pay the usual contribution in addition to the pay of the clerks.
