Proceedings of the Director of Public Instruction,
Madras 18th October 1872

Read the following letters:—

From the Principal, Civil Engineering College to the Director of Public Instruction, N^o 398 of 7th Instant
Do to Do N^o 405 of 12th Instant

with enclosures from

Mr Evans

Do to Do N^o 408 of 15th Instant
with enclosed depositions

The Director of Public Instruction observes that Mr Evans, 2^d Mathematical Master at the Civil Engineering College, invited Private Norton, a Military Student in the College, who appears to have gone to his home for instruction in Mathematics, to join Sergeant Major McCormack, & Wombles & Sister and himself in taking some liquor on the evening of the 30th ultimo. Mr Evans is of opinion that he was only extending ordinary hospitality to Norton, when he asked that Private to remain and join the party. In putting forward such a view, Mr Evans loses sight of the relative positions occupied by himself and Norton, which alone would suffice to render the step taken by the Assistant Master a decidedly improper one.

2. Mr Evans "emphatically" denies that Norton was drunk when he left, which was at half past nine; and he remarks that between the hour when he quitted and noon the following day Norton had ample time in which

which to render himself incapable. The depositions, however, of Sergeants Wilkinson and Stewart do not at all harmonize with the idea which Mr. Evans wishes to have accepted. The former Sergeant says Norton came into barracks a little before 10 P.M. and was then drunk. Sergeant Stewart says he saw Norton at 10 $\frac{1}{4}$ P.M., and that he was drunk. This evidence leads to the conclusion that Norton got drunk at Mr. Evans' home, which he left at 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ P.M. according to the Mathematical Master's statement.

3. On the whole the Director is compelled to believe that Mr. Evans, not merely asked Norton to drink with him which alone would be highly inappropriate considering the position occupied by that soldier and himself, but allowed the Private to get drunk in his home; and further, when called upon for an explanation, added a direct falsehood to his previous offences.

4. In the above circumstances if it were not for the previous good service of Mr. Evans, the Director could not do less than call on the Assistant Mathematical Master to resign his post, and in case of refusal, dismiss him. The Director will, however, take a more lenient course on the present occasion. Mr. Evans' salary will be reduced from Rs 170 to Rs 130 per mensem from the 1st instant; also the Assistant Master will forfeit all pay during the period of his suspension, which will terminate in the receipt of these proceedings. Mr. Evans is warned that any future offence of of the character of that now noticed will lead to his summary dismissal.
