Proceedings of Government, Pension Department, dated 4th April 1873, No. 205.

Read also the following papers:—

From the Superintendent of the Eye Infirmary, dated 6th May 1881.

No. A.D.J.-189.

Certificate and Report of Accountant-General.

Certified that qualifying service in inferior grades has been duly proved for five years, eleven months, and six days, and that no gratuity would seem to be admissible under the circumstances detailed below.

2. From G.O., No. 205, dated the 4th April 1873, it will be seen that the applicant had received a compensation gratuity of 40 rupees for her earlier service of ten years, ten months, and two days. The gratuity added to that admissible for the subsequent service, viz., Rs. 3, exceeds the maximum amount (30) allowable for the combined service amounting to sixteen years, nine months, and eight days, no gratuity therefore may be granted to the applicant separately for the subsequent service (vide Rule 9 at the end of Chapter XX of the Civil Pension Code, Fourth Edition).

3. The gratuity of Rs. 18 proposed by the Medical Department would seem to be through ignorance of Rule 6 of Section 76 of the Code.

ORDER THEREON, 8th October 1881, No. 1029.

It appears from the report of the Accountant-General that Lutchmoo, late Native Female Ward Nurse, is not entitled to any fresh retiring allowance, and the Honorable the Governor in Council sees no reason to treat her case in an exceptional manner.

2. The Government, while observing that the Accountant-General will make it the general rule in future to quote the provisions of the Fifth Edition of the Code, do not agree with his reasons for quoting the Fourth Edition in the present case, as the date of the petitioner's retirement (21st April) and the date of application for pension (6th May) were both subsequent to the date (6th April) of the publication of the Fifth Edition, which was therefore in force at the time.

Certified that during the time in respect of which this gratuity is claimed the officer has been duly employed for 5 years 11 months and 6 days and that no portion of such time would seem to be inadmissible under the circumstances detailed below.

From Service dated the 1st June 1873, it will be seen that the applicant had received a Confirmation gratuity of £40 Rs for Eleven Years service for 10 months and 2 days. No gratuity added to that admissible for the subsequent three years as Rs 3 exceeds the maximum ~~limit allowed by the Rules~~ ~~Entertainment~~ Allowance (30) allowable for the combined Service amounting to 14 years 9 months & 8 days no gratuity therefore may be granted to the applicant therefor. Certify that I have carefully examined
Lt Holmes. R.A. age 26 by her own statement 30 years and by appearance about 35 years.
I consider Lt Holmes to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Department to which she belongs in consequence of Cataract and General debility.
Her incapacity does not appear to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

Luchmoo was for many years (about 10) the only Nurse attached to the female wards of the Eye Infirmary. She was a useful, intelligent, sober and respectable woman and left the Hospital for a better paid appointment.—

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT GENERAL.

No 189 dated 6 Certified that (~~subject to the remarks below recorded~~) qualifying service in {inferior / ~~superior~~} grades has been duly proved for 5 years 11 months days; and that ~~a~~ no {pension / ~~gratuity~~} ~~not exceeding Rs.~~ seems to be, is admissible under Section The Superintendent detailed below of the Civil Pension Code. ~~The calculations have been duly verified~~

From G.O. No 205 dated the 4th April 1878 it will be seen that the applicant had received a Compensation Gratuity of 40 rs. for her qualifying service of 10 years 10 months and 2 days. The Gratuity added to that admissible for the subsequent service viz. Rs 15 would exceed the maximum amount (50) allowable for the combined service amounting to 16 – 9 – 8 no Gratuity therefore may be granted to the applicant separately for the subsequent service vide rule 9 at the end of Chapter XX of the Civil Pension Code 4th Edition.

The Gratuity of Rs 15 as proposed by the Medical Department would seem to be through ignorance of rule 6 of Section 76 of the Code.

Collectorate.

Sir,

With reference to the Board's Standing Proceedings
No 63 dated the 21st August 1881 regarding the petition and the case of Subbamma Native
Female School Mistress Chittoor
I have the honor to report that the petitioner was appointed by the Collector to that office on the 1st May 1861 on a salary of Rs 5 per mensem and was promoted by the Collector to receive Rupees 6 per mensem with effect from the 1st January 1866.
She was further promoted by the Collector on the 1st May 1871 to receive Rupees 8 per mensem which she continued to draw till the 31st December 1880 when she was superannuated by the Collector under the provisions of Rule 4 of Section XXIII of the Civil Pension Code.

2. Although the publication of the Madras
Civil Pension Code, as dated the 6th April 1881, the Head of the Office has not declared the petitioner to be employed, and she could not have been granted leave on Private Affairs on the 21st March 1881 Subbamma
therefore Subbamma cannot be held entitled under the provisions of the Code to Retiring Allowance
