District Munsiff's Court

Belwada.

6th September 1881.

To S. J. McCarthy Esquire

Selling District Judge Kistna.

Honored Sir,

In reply to the Proceedings of the District Court dated 27th August 1881, No. 223, I beg to state that Bhiravi Bhasrayya, late a Malda Amin of the Court, did retire from service on the 19th Ultimo. From the enclosed arzi I find that his retirement was unconditional.
He simply requested the late District Munsiff to give his appointment to his son as a matter of favor in consideration of his past services. The late District Munsiff out of regard and pity for the old man, appears to have recommended for his post his son who had been holding a temporary appointment in the workshop.

on a pay of Rs 14 a month.

2. No medical certificate is necessary under section 103 of the Civil Pension Code in cases of a servant applying for pension who is 60 years old or upwards; but a certificate from the Head of the office as to the incapacity of the applicant would suffice.

3. The applicant here, is upwards of 70 years and in my opinion totally unfit for any active service; as a Datta Amin his work is to travel about the District, and to take measurements of lands. Considering his old age and weak health, I think his retention in service any longer would be a waste of Government money.

I beg to
