To

His Excellency the Governor in Council,

Fort. Saint George

OOTACAMUND.

The humble Petition of C. MUNEESAWMY NAIDOO, late Assistant Draughtsman Revenue Survey Central Office Madras.

HUMBLY SHEWETH.

That your Excellecy's humble Petitioner was entertained in the Madras Revenue Survey Department on 1st June 1858 as a Gumastah on a salary of Rs. 5 and was taught by Lieutenant (now Colonel) Priestley, Cadastral Survey in field, in the Godavery District. Immediately aftewards, he was taken in Office as a Draughtsman, received gradual promotions and was employed in that capacity till March 1861, when he was transferred to the Nellore District on pay Rs. 17½ per mensem. Within two years after the date of transfer his pay was doubled. On completion of work in the latter District he was transferred to the Chingleput Party.

2. That your Excellency's Petitioner served under the Officers named below from most of whom he received rapid promotions :—

Colonel HESSEY	J. H. WRIGHT Esq.
Colonel CREWE	H. GOMPERTZ Esq.
F. C. PUCKLE Esq.	Major A. O. H. CLAY
Major W. BARBER	Major W. FREETH
W. BEAUMONT Esq.	H. MERRIMAN Esq.
H. O. C. CARDOZO Esq.	Major C. C. SARGEAUNT

3. On 30th May 1873, your Excellency's Petitioner resigned his appointment of his own accord and was on 10th January 1874, taken on the strength of the Central Survey Office as a Draughtsman Examiner on pay Rs. 15 which was subsequently raised to Rs. 20 per mensem. In this capacity, he continued to serve the Department till 31st March 1880, when he was thrown out on reduction of Establishment. His age on the date of reduction was 45 years.

4. He was recommended and granted gratuity instead of pension on account of a break of 7⅓ months in his services of 22 years nearly. On a humble representation, F. C. Puckle Esq. late Acting Superintendent Revenue Survey was pleased to apply to Government to return to him the papers submitted to them, in view that they might be requested to condone 7 months, interruption in the service of your Excellency's Petitioner. Thus a fair prospect of securing pension began to dawn, but all on a sudden, it became gloomy and your Excellency's Petitioner was informed that "he resigned the service for his own convenience and that therefore there was no reason for applying to Government for the condonation of the break of continuous service caused thereby".

5. Section 57 Clause (b) of the Civil Pension Code; wherein the indulgence sought for by your Excellency's humble Petitioner is set forth, runs as follows :—

"When an Officer resigns his appointment of his own accord and rejoins within 12 months from the date of resignation his services will be counted for." The two qualifications that are necessarily required for the extension of the indulgence are not wanting in the case of your Excellency's humble Petitioner, and the unwillingness lastly expressed by the late Acting Superintendent Revenue Survey F. C. Puckle Esq. is attributable to the Petitioner's misfortune from which he earnestly begs your Excellency to save him.

6. That your Excellency's Petitioner again Petitioned the Acting Superintendent Revenue Survey under the firm belief that his sad case would enlist that Officer's sympathy towards him and received another endorsement most despairing; viz :—" His conduct did not appear to be very satisfactory." He served the Officers named above in public and Captain A. Wood in private capacity (Vide copy of Certificate marked I) but not one of them, with a single exception, had recorded anything about his personal behaviour.

7. That your Excellency's Petitioner is only acquainted with a technical work viz:—Cadastral Survey and mapping chiefly in office and as such, his services are not much sought for in other Departments, that he faithfully served the Revenue Survey Department for nearly 22 years in four different Districts, that he has as yet a long way to run, and that there is very little chance of his qualifications being utilized in accordance with the recent order of Government, directing the appointment of those thrown out of service &c., on reduction. He humbly and earnestly requests your Excellency in Council to be generons enough to pity the Petitioner's poor and distressed condition and to secure to him the indulgence set forth by the Government of India in the Pension Code.

Your Petitioner in duty bound shall ever pray.
