and 21 days. As the incapacity for further service is stated by the Officer to be due to irregular habits, the applicant is not, under the third letter of Section 105 of the Civil Pension Code, entitled to any retiring allowance.

In their Order of 22 January 1890 Government have however decided, that in view of some service and of good character, but declared to be unfit owing to dyspeptic affections, might be admitted to Pension which would be paid after consideration being given to the merits of the case. The present case might be brought under the terms of that Order, if the applicant's past conduct and character were reported to be good instead of as "indifferent" as has now been done. It is to be noted that the Government to decide whether the case is one deserving of special consideration notwithstanding that the rules in their strict interpretation do not admit of it. Ordinarily the applicant would be entitled to a pension of P² 2-5-9 (and not P² 2-5-8 only) a month, as reported by the Inspector General of Poles in his letter of 1279 dated the 16 November 1881 accompanying.
