I hereby certify that I have made careful enquiries into the circumstances causing the deaths of the men named in the margin, all of whom belonged to the Jeypore, Police force.

From evidence taken, I have ascertained that they lost their lives while fighting against a large gang of rebels at a village called Kuntli, on the banks of the Pavar river.

They had succeeded in keeping off the rebels from Porech until their arrival at Kuntli, a distance of eight miles, but on arrival at the latter place their ammunition became exhausted; the rebels then closed in on them; and shot them down.

The party of which these unfortunate men composed a part ~~consisted~~ ^{consisted} of the late Inspector Audiah Naidoo one Head Constable, and twelve men, while at a village called Telaroi they heard of the attack made on the Porech police station, and at once started with the object of dispersing the rebels, but on their arrival at Porech finding the rebels too strong, they endeavoured to make their way back, to Amothopalli keeping along the banks of the Savari river,

The rest of the party succeeded in making their escape across the Savari river into Dustar territory
