Memorandum.

With reference to his report
1887
366, dated 30: November 1887 herewith
returned for convenience of reference,
the Accountant General is requested to state if the Government may not resolve to grant the pensions under section 158 instead of under section 153, and in that case whether the pensions may not be made tenable
for life. The Accountant General will also explain his reason for getting both the sections ^{which appear to} relate ~~to different cases of cases~~
~~section appears to relate only to persons~~
~~other than Government Officers.~~

Order thereon 22nd Decr/81 N^o 1367

Under Sections 153 and 158 of the Civil Pension Code 5th Edition, the Right Honourable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant the following Extraordinary Family or Pensions, tenable for 12 years for the support of the families of Police Constables, Balaprasad and Mahomed Yaseen of the Coimbatore Police who were killed in the execution of duty:—

Let
There seems some doubt as to the correctness of the Accl. General's view that pensions under Section 158 are also bound by the rules under Section 153. It is submitted that under the former Section Govt. may make what conditions they please, and are not bound by the rules under Section 153 which refers to all cases of Extraordinary Pensions, while Section 158 only refers to Govt. Officers. The order has however been drafted and the recommendation of the P.S. of Police, & so the point need not perhaps be raised in the present case.
