Tahiti issued to Mr. [unclear] a circular invoice of Tahiti Coast Survey and Land Division.

On perusing the report with its enclosure, written by the thero-dar and the salt writer after inspecting the above coast it is received that the salt created up to 15th September 1805, which according to your books estimate was 99 acres and 200 baskets turned out on testing to be 11 farses and 50 baskets, resulting therefrom an excess of 1 acre and 250 baskets. In the hypothesis or explanation given by you, you say: that 99 acres and 200 baskets of salt were all that was scraped up to 20th June, that no salt was scraped after that date; that the basket estimate sent was formed upon the statements of ryots who used to tell you that so many baskets of salt were carried from the pans to the platform; that the difference arose on account of ryots carrying salt to be carried by boys as well as men, in baskets small and large indiscriminately in contradiction to the express circular orders (repeatedly communicated to them) that each basket should be of a capacity to hold 2 bharaks of salt; that you had no leisure to check them from doing so, as you had the charge of 2 Cotnars (Thulili & Dugaray); that it is usual for the ryots to heap salt and tamp it well with planks; that the estimate given by them often proves

174 proves incorrect; that under the circumstances it is very difficult to give a correct estimate until ~~it has~~ the salt has been stored, and that it was even impossible to judge from the size of the heap as heaps were all covered with straw on account of rains.

As it is quite unnatural that there should result such a large overage, except, and as it was your responsibility to give correct estimates, we have suspended you for the 3 months from the 20th instant. You should deliver over charge to the Superintendent and get a receipt to that effect.

To The Commissioner of Salt Revenue

Sir With reference to Proceedings No 4620 dated 2nd June 1881, I have the honor to forward herewith the explanation obtained from M. Lutchmaya for not joining his appointment at Padarti in time.

2: It appears from his explanation that he had been granted, by the then Salt Deputy Collector, 1 months leave on half pay from the date he was relieved at Dugarayapatam viz 16th March 1863, and was ordered to join Padarti as soon as his leave expired. The Collector, however, cancelled this

This leave and ordered for forfeiture of full pay till he joined Padarti Factory. This the applicant was not aware of as he had left Dugarayapatam. The Superintendent of Dugarayapatam communicated this order of the collector to the applicant when he returned to Dugarayapatam. Consequently no pay was disbursed to him from 16 March to 17 April 1863 - he was absent.

the meanwhile I went to Trivellore on pilgrimage and returned to Dugarajappatam. I heard from the Supt. of that Division that my salary has been withdrawn and that my leave was cancelled. I myself received no separate intimation to that effect. I immediately left Dugarajapattam and joined Pa-di on the 18th April and took charge duties. I received no pay from date of my leaving Dugarajapattam to the date of my joining Padai.
 I was delayed going to Padai on my transfer to ~~that place~~ that place.
 As I came to know of the cancellation of my leave very late, there has been a delay in my joining. As soon I became aware of it I immediately reached Padai. You will thus observe that there was no mistake on my behalf and protect me.
