Sir

With reference to your Proceedings No 6025 dated July 25, 1881, forwarding Accountant General's letter No 1082 K of July 22, 1881, herewith returned I have the honor to report that of the leaves noted in the margin of the Accountant General's letter No 2nd and 4th were granted to the undersigned on account of fever one full day and the other leave i.e from 27th to 30 June 1875, one half days; the circumstances under which the latter leave could given cannot be ascertained from the records. The absentee allowance drawn for these four days (Rs 1-5-4) may be be deducted from the pension granted to him.

2. The omissions of the two other leaves mentioned in para 2 of the letter under reply in the history of service are mistakes for which the person responsible for writing up the Service Book (which a Pson are aware were not written up) and preparing the application had been reprimanded.
