Read ad. Zi No 500 dated 7th Instant.

It appears that Kristnappa Naick Taluq peon No. 2 was ordered on the 4th Instant to bring certain Mirassidars and the Kurnam of Thagattur on the 6th Instant to the said place to enquire into the case against the Kurnam but he failed to do so.

Kristnappa Naick on being asked, deposed that as he was unable to find out the Mirassidars without the aid of the Village Officers and as the pattamanigar was absent at

Vedaranium

Vedaraniam he was not able to produce any body as directed.

Whereupon a Kattalai was given to another Peon Gopal Naik who brought forthwith 30 Mirasidars and the said Monigar.

It is evidently wrong on the part of the Kristnappa Naik to have stated that he did not know any of the Mirassidars after having served in this Taluq for 37 years. He has moreover uttered a falsehood that the Pattamanigar was not present in the village.

Under these circumstances I have suspended him for one month as suggested by you. His name should be removed away from the pay abstract from this date.

Warn him to be more careful in the discharge of his duties in future and nominate a competent man in his stead and report his name.

Abstract

Suspending for a year Kristnappa Naik Peon No. 2 who did not do any duty for a period of 23 days.

Read Arzi dated 31st August last No. 691 &c of the late Tahsildar

It appears that Kristnappa Naik Peon No. 2 who had been deputed on the 6th August last for the work of collecting coolies for the deepening of the Nedumbalam Tank did not do any duty for a space of 23 days and when sent for, from his house on the 29th Idem said that when he had been to the villages for coolies the Kurnam and others told him that that

that all the coolies left the places for work outside and that when he came to Tritrapoondy afterwards he was sick of a boil in his hand.

The late Tahsildar has reported that this peon was absent without leave for 6 days in May last. Previous to May his salary for upwards of one month was stopped for absence without leave. With all this as he has not come to his sense and as he, as said above, displayed neglect of duty on his part I suspend him for a year from this date. His name should be removed from the pay abstract from that date.

His salary for the days of his absence shall be stopped and carried to the Government credit.

A proper substitute for his post should be recommended -
