From the Collector of Nellore, dated 28th February 1881.

No. A.D.J.-55.

Certificate and Report of Accountant-General.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for twenty years, three months, and nine days ; but that no retiring allowance would seem to be admissible, as the incapacity of the applicant, whose age at the time of retirement was less than fifty-five years, was not established by a medical certificate as required in Section 61, and his suspension from employment in May 1879 was not followed by reinstatement, as required by the exception (c), Section 55, of the Civil Pension Code.

2. On inquiry into the circumstances under which the Collector considered himself justified in submitting the application, he reports that the conduct of the applicant was made the subject of inquiry regarding some falsification of accounts, and that he was ultimately suspended from employment ; but by the order of suspension he was allowed the option of retiring on pension. This option appears to have been granted apparently without considering the question whether or not the claim of the applicant for a pension could be satisfactorily established by the rules of the Civil Pension Code, accordingly the applicant put in an application for pension and died on the 22nd September 1880. There has thus been no opportunity to submit the applicant for a medical examination in view to his being declared to be fit or not for the public service.

3. Under these circumstances, it rests with Government to decide whether the application can be admitted and the applicant granted a pension or not by reversing the order of suspension under Rule 2, Section 56, of the Civil Pension Code. If it be decided in the affirmative, the applicant may be granted a pension not exceeding Rs. 10 a-month, equal to one-third of his average emoluments ; but the grant, it is respectfully pointed out, will need to be reported to the Government of India for confirmation, as the class of pension to which the applicant would thus be admitted could neither be compensation, invalid, superannuation, nor retiring pension.

4. On perusal of the correspondence in connection with the applicant's suspension in May 1879, his character and past conduct do not appear to have been satisfactory. It rests, therefore, with Government to decide what reduction should be made in the amount of any pension that may be sanctioned to him.

5. As the applicant is reported to have died on the 22nd September 1880, the arrears of pension should be made payable to his son under Section 102-2 of the Code

6. The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Collector in his remarks on the third page of the application.

24. Although there was no formal order reinstating the applicant yet that was intended when the order of 10th April was passed. Under these circumstances his services previous to the case of his pension are considered pensionable.

25. The quoting of section 66 of the Civil Pension Code is an error for sec. 65 as at the time of his retirement he had nearly attained the age of 55 years and it was undeniable to retain him longer in the service after the enquiry held in his case. The application has been altered accordingly.

26 The saving of 1R in September 1866 should come under the designation "Fine".

Proceedings of the Collector of Nellore No. 1224 d/10th April 1880.

Since writing my proceedings of the 31st March 1880, I have heard Srikantam Venkatramaniah Curnam of Brahmanakraka and Pokala Ramasawmi Naidu, 1st C Revenue Inspector of Kavali.

2. As regards Srikantam Venkatramaniah it seems to me certain that he took a dishonest part in the falsification of the Chavady register. He is dismissed.

3. As regards Pokala Ramasawmi Naidu it is certain that he knew interpolations had been made in the Register and did not bring the fact to the notice of his superiors but it is just possible that he may not have acted dishonestly. He is a man of 30 years service and I am inclined to be lenient with him. If therefore he retires on pension at once, I shall consider the long term of suspension he has suffered (for which he will get only 1/4 of his salary as sustenance allowance) a sufficient punishment.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

No $\frac{AP}{55}$ Certified that qualifying service in Superior Grades has been duly proved for 20 years 3 months and 9 days; but that no retiring allowance would seem to be admissible as the incapacity of the applicant whose age at the time of retirement was less than 55 years, was not established by a Medical Certificate as required in Section 61 and his suspension from employment in May 79 was not followed by re-instatement as required by the exception (c) Section 55 of the Civil Pension Code.

On enquiry into the circumstances under which the Collector considered himself justified in submitting the application, he reports that the conduct of the applicant was made the subject of enquiry regarding some falsification of accounts and that he was ultimately suspended from employment; but by the order of suspension, he was allowed the option of retiring on pension. This option appears to have been granted apparently without considering the question whether or not the claim of the applicant for a pension could be satisfactorily established by the rules of the Civil Pension Code. Accordingly the applicant put in an application for Pension and died on the 22d September 1880. There has thus been no opportunity to submit the applicant for a Medical Examination in view to his being declared to be fit or not for the public Service.

Under these circumstances it rests with Government to decide whether the application can be admitted and the applicant granted a pension or not by reversing the order of suspension under Rule 2 Section 56 of the Civil Pension Code. If it be decided in the affirmative the applicant may be granted a pension not exceeding Rs 10 - - a Month equal to ⅓ of his average emoluments; but the Grant, it is respectfully pointed out, will need to be reported to the Government of India for confirmation as the Class of Pension to which the applicant would thus be admitted could neither be compensation Invalid, Superannuation ~~or~~ retiring Pension.

On perusal of the correspondence in connection with the applicant's suspension in May 79 his character and past Conduct do not appear to have been satisfactory. It rests therefore with Government to decide what reduction should be made in the amount of any pension that may be sanctioned to him.

As the applicant is reported to have died on the 22d September 1880, the arrears of pension should be made payable to his son under Section 102-2. of the Code.

The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Collector in his remarks on the 3rd page of the application.
