11TH NOVEMBER 1882, No. 1067, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Certificate and report of H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 12th October 1882, No. 272-A.D.J.

Certified that qualifying service in inferior grades has been duly proved for seventeen years, eight months, and nineteen days, but that no gratuity would seem to be admissible under the strict letter of the rules of the Civil Pension Code for the following reason. The abolition of the applicant's post, in consequence of which his services were dispensed with in January 1874, did not, as reported by the Collector in his reply to this office reference, No. 94-A.I.K., dated the 29th August 1882, produce a real saving to Government, but resulted in the creation of an appointment of Gumastah with a pay more than double of the pay of the applicant.

It will be noticed that a period of upwards of eight years has elapsed since the applicant's removal from his post on the ground of reduction of establishment. It seems fair to presume that several suitable vacancies on the permanent establishment occurred during the interval, and yet the applicant has not been provided for. The Collector was asked to explain why the applicant was not provided with an appointment on the occurrence of any of those vacancies, so that the expense of the gratuity now applied for might have been saved to Government. In reply, he states that such an arrangement could not be made, as the applicant was ignorant of the English language. It is for Government to decide whether the reason assigned is sufficient to support the present application.

The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Collector in his reply quoted above.

ORDER—dated 11th November 1882, No. 1067, Pension.

The reason assigned by the Collector for his omission to provide the applicant with employment is insufficient. He should be re-entertained in a suitable post at an early date.

Sir,

In reply to your letter No 829 dated 14th Instant I regret to inform you that as the old records of this Office were destroyed I am unable to furnish you with the copy asked for, but from the Civil Office Portal

Postal Establishment it appears that the Imperial Post Offices at the stations named in the above were established under Director General's order

8. The Copy of the Order abolishing the appointment of Mulky Gmasta of Bobbili
is not forthcoming; the Supt of Post Office states that the old records of his office were destroyed Vide Supt's Letter of 16th Sept 1882
No D. 4156 enclosed.

9. The delay in the submission of the application for gratuity is due to the applicant not having applied for gratuity till August 1882. He says that after the abolition of his post of Mulky Gmasta of Bobbili in January 1874 he was in hopes of being reemployed but could not succeed
in getting a permanent post.

17. The applicant was provided with Acting appointments occasionally, but not knowing English
he could not succeed in getting any suitable permanent appointments. By the abolition of the applicant's post in January 1874 his pay was Rs 7

a month was saved to Govt. but in lieu of the post a Sub Postmaster ship on Rs 15 was created by the Imperial Dept.

35. The service claimed has been established by records and may be admitted.

36. As stated above the applicant had acting appointments occasionally, but not knowing English, he could not obtain a permanent post.
