SIR,

With reference to your application for gratuity on behalf of Simee Nagappa received with your letter No. 432 dated the 30th September 1881, I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to forward the copies of the Records of the District Munsiff's Court, Salem, for the years from 1876 to 1879 as the same are not forthcoming among the records in this office together with information as to why the applicant was recommended for an Invalid gratuity equal to 3 months pay without having recourse to the process laid down in proviso to Section III of

of the Civil Pension Code, 5th Edn., while it is evident that his qualifying service began after the 20th January 1871 and after he attained the age of twenty five years, vide Rule 4 Section 11 of the Code. The necessary alteration should therefore be now made in the amount of gratuity entered opposite to No. 12 on the 1st page of the accompanying application.

The Service Book is here with returned for insertion therein of all the leaves enjoyed by the applicant. If no leave was enjoyed, it should be so stated in it, and the documents returned at an early date.

Sir,

I have the honor to retransmit, herewith, the application for Gratuity on behalf of Sinna Nagappan, late Process-Server of the District Munsif's Court of Salem. His service does not exceed ten years and is therefore entitled, under Section 117 A of the Civil Pension Code, to invalid gratuity of three months pay. The provisions of Section 111, referred to in your letter dated 20th October 1881, do not, in my opinion, apply to the case, as the applicant has not completed thirty years service, and is therefore not entitled to Superannuation Pension under Section 117 B.

The Service Register and the lists lists of Peons are also enclosed.

To,
The District Judge

Sir,

With reference to the Accountant General's letter N. A. G. 148 dated 20th October 1881, forwarded to me by the District Court for report, I beg herewith to forward a copy prepared from the Office copy (kept in this Court) of the process serving peons' list sent to the Accountant General's Office for 1877, as well as lists of such peons for 1876, 1878, and 1879, newly prepared, as it does not appear appear from the record, that such lists were forwarded to the Accountant General for those years.

As to the query "why the applicant was recommended for an invalid gratuity equal to 3 months pay without having recourse to the process laid down in Proviso to Section III of the Civil Pension Code?"

I beg to state that the case of an old process server as Nagappen, is of a peculiar character; for, the Salary-System under the Court fees act of 1870 was introduced on 16th August 1873, but he had rendered for upwards of 11½ years previous to that date exactly the same service as as subsequent thereto. And the Proviso in Section III and Rule 4 in Section 117, contain no express mention of the Process-servers. I therefore considered that Nagappen should get a gratuity which is allowable to him under the Note to Section 78 and under Section 117 clause (a) irrespectively of his age at the time when the salary-system came into force.

The alteration required in the said letter is made in the amount of gratuity entered opposite to Rs 12 on the 1st page of the application.

From the record, it appears appears that no leave or forfeiture of any portion of his pay was granted him since the introduction of the salary system.

The papers as per margin are herewith returned.

I beg to remain

Servant
