GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

6th February 1882, No. 118, Pension.

Read—the following letter from Colonel H. D. CLOETE, Officiating Inspector-General of Police, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Madras, 20th December 1881, No. 6957.

I have the honor to submit, for orders of Government, an application for the grant of a pension to John Bartholomew Burden, late a Second-class Inspector of Police of the Chingleput District.

2. He has served in the late Supreme Court and the Police Departments for twenty-eight years, eight months, and eight days, and has borne a "good" character. He is now unfit for further effective service of any kind, as certified by the Standing Medical Committee, Madras, on the 15th October 1881.

3. He is entitled to an invalid monthly pension of Rs. (75) seventy-five, payable at Chingleput from the 16th October 1881, according to Sections 102 and 109 (c) of the Civil Pension Code.

4. He was acting as First-class Inspector in the room of Ali Dost, transferred on special duty to South Arcot, from 10th July 1878 to the date of discharge, and would have been confirmed in that grade had Inspector Ali Dost been sooner removed from the strength of Chingleput. I venture to express a hope that the Government will be pleased to take this fact into consideration when deciding upon the amount of pension to be granted to him.

Read—the following Certificate and Report of Accountant-General, dated 21st February 1882, No. A.D.J.-423.

Certified that, should Government be pleased to decide that the duties of the appointment of "Tipstaff and Crier" in the High Court held by the applicant from 7th September 1848 to 31st January 1857, are such as to entitle him to pension on the superior scale, as per clauses (a) and (b) of Section 91 of the Civil Pension Code, his qualifying service in superior grades may be stated to have been proved for twenty-eight years, eight months, and eight days, and that an invalid pension not exceeding Rs. 75 per mensem, equal to half average emoluments, will be admissible under Sections 102 and 109 (c) of the Code, 5th Edition.

2. The interruption in the applicant's service from 1st February to 31st May 1861, caused by resignation of the public service, need not be condoned as the resignation was followed by re-employment within twelve months from date of such resignation (vide Rule 3, Section 97, of the Code).

3. In paragraph 4 of his letter, No. 6757, dated the 20th December 1881, the Inspector-General of Police recommends the grant to the applicant of a pension higher than that recommended in paragraph 1 above, in consideration of his having acted as First-class Inspector of Police in the arrangement of the Inspector Ali Dost transferred on special duty to South Arcot. But as the appointment was simply an acting one (vide paragraph 8 of the Inspector-General's letter, embodied in Madras Government, No. 116, dated 31st January 1872, Judicial), and as the permanent incumbent will naturally count service for pension in his own appointment, the applicant cannot also, at the same time, be allowed to count service therein, and the acting allowance drawn cannot therefore be included in the calculation of his average emoluments for pension.

4. It will be seen from the accompanying copy of the certificate granted by Mr. Montgomery, the late Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, that the applicant served as a Writer in the Revenue and Judicial Departments of the Government Office permanently from 1st June 1847 to 30th September 1848; his pay then was Rs. 15 per mensem. From the letter from the Registrar, High Court, dated the 10th November 1881, it will also be seen that the applicant commenced to be employed as Tipstaff on a salary of Rs. 54-7-1 per mensem from 7th September 1848. It follows, therefore, that he drew pay from 7th to 30th September 1848 in both the offices. Under these circumstances it rests with Government to decide whether the pay drawn in the former establishment should or should not be recovered from the applicant's pension.

5. In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

Order—dated 6th February 1882, No. 118, Pension.

Under Sections 102 and 109 (c) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Mr. John Bartholomew Burden, late Second-class Inspector of Police of the Chingleput District, an invalid pension of Rs. (75) seventy-five per mensem, payable at Saidápet, Chingleput District, from 16th October 1881, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of twenty-eight years, eight months, and eight days.

2. With reference to the concluding part of paragraph 4 of the Inspector-General's letter the Government observe that the Rules do not admit of the grant of a higher rate of pension to the applicant in consideration of his having acted as First-class Inspector of Police.

3. The pay that may have been overdrawn by him in the Revenue and Judicial Departments of the Government Office from 7th to 30th September 1848 need not now be recovered.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
31st January 1872.*

No. 99. Read the following letter from the Inspector-General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 25th January 1872, No. 271 (General):—

I have the honour to submit, for the consideration of Government, the necessity which exists for devising some special measure for the purpose of crushing dacoity in South Arcot and in one or two of the neighbouring districts.

2. The state of matters with regard to dacoity in South Arcot is already well known to Government. It has been specially alluded to by me in successive Administration Reports (vide paragraph 35, Administration Report for 1869, and paragraph 31, Administration Report for 1870). The causes have, in my opinion, been various, and it is needless to attempt to trace them here. It is sufficient that the fact exists. But South Arcot certainly possesses amongst its population an unusual proportion of Pariahs and other low castes who are found to furnish the most dangerous and daring criminals in this Presidency.

3. No stimulus has been spared in urging the Police to combat this crime, and the efforts made by all officers concerned have not been without result. The following figures show the numbers of house dacoities in South Arcot during the past three years:—

	House dacoities.
1870	41

Thus a steady decrease is visible, which has been particularly marked during the year just ended, and in 1871 the amount of property lost in house dacoity has been little more than half the amount lost in the preceding year. But amongst the twenty-seven house dacoities there have been several torch-light gang robberies of the old ferocious type, accompanied by circumstances of violence and outrage, some of which are probably concealed by the wretched sufferers through very shame. Thus although the statistics show that gang robbery has been to a certain extent got under and reduced in quantity, yet the quality of the crime remains the same, and it is hardly too much to say that no villager in South Arcot (in places other than Police stations) can feel quite secure when he goes to bed at night that he will not be awake to see his household the scene of plunder and foul outrage.

4. This state of things points to the conclusion that although many dacoity cases have been detected and many dacoits have been convicted in South Arcot, yet that the real leaders and organizers have not been got hold of in any number. There may be, and probably is, collusion with the Police in some degree in this matter. Leading dacoits can afford to pay well for immunity, and they are rather glad than otherwise to see a few of their understrappers convicted, because then the Police are too apt to drop the case which is considered to be "detected;" in fact, what is now necessary is to get at the root of the evil, to find out who are the real promoters and leaders of dacoity in South Arcot, and to put them, if possible, into jail. Dacoity of this type will then cease, as it has ceased in Cuddapah and elsewhere.

5. So long as the battle against dacoity was being fought in all districts equally, it was impossible to give special aid anywhere. Each district had to do the best it could with its own unassisted resources. But, now that the struggle has been condensed, as it were, into one corner of the Presidency, some special aid should be given, and I feel sure that the Government will willingly expend a few Rupees upon a measure which is intended to relieve the people of South Arcot, if possible, from their dire tormentors.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

6. I have already proposed to Government a measure* which will give an extra 3rd Class Inspector to South Arcot for Land Customs Police duties and release a 1st Class Inspector for Divisional Police duties only. But I do not think that this is enough. I think that a special officer of marked detective ability is required, who will be able to give his whole attention to the crime of dacoity uncramped by the exigencies of divisional routine. With such aid I believe that the Superintendent of Police, who has been untiring in his efforts, will be able at last to win a complete victory.

7. The best officer that I know for this purpose is 1st Class Inspector Ali Dost, of the Chingleput District. In detective ability he stands unrivalled. He will be exposed to great temptations, but his honesty has never been impeached. He is a man who can do the work required, and I am confident that he will do it.

8. I would, therefore, propose that Inspector Ali Dost should be temporarily employed in South Arcot as an "Inspector on special duty" with an extra allowance of Rupees 100 per mensem, making his total pay and allowances Rupees 315 per mensem. He will, of course, be superior in rank to all other Inspectors of whatever class while so employed. His place would meanwhile be filled up in the Chingleput District by making acting appointments. The total cost of the special allowance and of deputation allowance to Acting Inspectors will be Rupees 2,760 per annum. I think also that Inspector Ali Dost should be allowed to take with him his best detective subordinate as a special Head Constable on Rupees 30 per mensem. For other agency he must look to the Police of South Arcot under the orders of the Superintendent of that district, who will, of course, see that his Inspector on special duty gets efficient aid. The cost of the extra Head Constable will be Rupees 360 per annum, making the total cost of the measure Rupees 3,120 per annum. This sum, I feel sure, can be provided for the current year and for 1872-73 out of the savings on the Budget Estimates already sent in; indeed, I have just been able to effect a reduction of clothing charges to a greater amount than this, and the money, I am convinced, will be well spent.

9. I would also advise that, should Inspector Ali Dost be successful in South Arcot, he should subsequently be similarly employed in Salem and Tanjore if the necessity for a special agency should still appear to exist. But I fully expect to find that Inspector Ali Dost's operations in the southern and western parts of South Arcot will throw considerable light upon the organization of dacoity in the adjacent districts of Salem and Tanjore.

No. 100.

ORDER THEREON, 31st January 1872, No. 116.

The Government approve of the employment of 1st Class Inspector Ali Dost and of a Head Constable on the special duty of suppressing dacoity in the South Arcot District, as proposed by the Inspector-General of Police, the extra charge involved by this arrangement, being Rupees 3,120 per annum, to be met by savings in the Police estimates of the current year and of 1872-73.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

Certified that we have carefully examined John Bartholomew Burden Inspector of Shee; of the Police Department Chingleput District Sec of William James Burden. His age is by his own statement 52 years by appearance about 52 years. We consider Burden to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Department to which he belongs in consequence of General Debility and Chronic Phrenitis.

His incapacity does not appear to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.
