GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From the Acting District Judge of Salem, dated 1st September 1882, No. 409.

Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 30th November 1882, No. A.D.J.-348.

Certified that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for twenty-three years, seven months, and thirteen days, and that a superannuation pension not exceeding Rs. 6-12-9 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, is admissible under Sections 106 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition). The calculations have been duly verified.

2. There is a break in the continuity of the applicant's service extending over a period of one year, one month, and six days, viz., from 1st November 1868 to 6th December 1869, caused by resignation of the public service. The circumstances connected with the resignation are detailed in the Proceedings of the District and Sessions Court, Tranquebar, dated the 31st October 1868, a copy whereof is appended. The break will entail forfeiture of the applicant's past services unless it is condoned by Government under the powers vested in them by Section 93 (b) of the Code.

3. The amount of pension proposed by the District Judge, Salem, differs considerably from that recommended by this office, the former being equal to one-half, while the latter is equal only to one-third of the applicant's average emoluments. This difference is due to the fact that the District Judge has allowed the applicant to count towards pension the whole of the acting service rendered by him previous to obtaining a substantive appointment, viz., from 10th August 1855 to 31st May 1857, whereas under Rule 3, Section 70, of the Civil Pension Code, he could count service only in the appointment in which he was confirmed without interruption, viz., the appointment of sixth Gumasta, from 1st June 1857. The exclusion of his previous acting service is further justified by the fact that the applicant's name is omitted in the annual returns from 1855 to 1857 on record in this office.

4. It is observed that the amount of pension recommended in the first paragraph of this report is Rs. 6-12-9, whereas if the applicant had retired from the service on 1st April 1879 during the recent reorganization of establishments in the Judicial Department, he would have been entitled to a compensation pension of Rs. 7 per mensem, equal to one-third of his then average emoluments. It rests with Government to decide whether, under the provisions of Section 101 of the Code, he should be granted the higher rate of pension or not.

5. The applicant's average emoluments, as entered in the first page of the application, amount to Rs. 20-9-0, while as calculated by this office they amount to Rs. 20-6-4 only per mensem. The difference, it is presumed, is due to the inclusion in the calculation of average emoluments of acting allowance drawn during the last five years of service which have been properly excluded by this office.

delivered by some other person and that he was locked up and an attempt was made to raise money to obtain them that any books or documents were wanting no doubt the responsibility of taking care of the books and papers upon the provisions of the Court declared him liable but undoubtedly he, Narayana, and he alone is answerable for the safe custody of the Court record placed under his charge. The Civil Judge has given him time for the books to be found but it is still missing. Sundry other acts of indiscipline on the part of Narayana have come under the notice of the Court.
In Session Case No. 18 of 1888 in which prisoner was acquitted of the charge on the plea of insanity a communication was to be forwarded to the Government re usual requesting their orders about the disposal of the mad man. A heavy session was then occupying the Court and the letter to the Government was not dispatched for a whole month and an copy book of Proceedings lately received from the High Court is admitted by him to have been in his possession but is lost and the loss cannot be accounted for.

Under these circumstances the Court suspending the Judge Narayana until the lost books are found for it will never be known what such a grave offence as that of destroying and throwing away with Court records
The person under whose charge the office papers

7
were given must alone be held responsible for their safety and though in the present instance there is no evidence to prove that Narayana having made away with the attendance book in question. Yet it was transferred to his care with other documents when his predecessor was dismissed from his office and he must answer to the Civil Judge for the loss of the books.

Narayana has however, chosen voluntarily to tender Resignation of his appointment of the Judge of the Civil Court. as no proof of criminality on his part has come to light the Court has no ground for refusing compliance with his application. The Resignation of _____ is accordingly accepted and his place will be filled up at once: 31-10-88.

1/14. C. n^o 1558 of 1869/

The papers sent up do not in the opinion of the High Court disclose any thing that would have justified the dismissal of the Petitioner. The missing papers are of themselves very unimportant, and as to one of them there is room for doubt whether it ever reached the Session Court, and the Nazis certainly cannot be held responsible for the delay in the matter of communicating with Government on the subject of an insane prisoner. But the High Court see no reason to suppose that the Petitioner's resignation was otherwise than a perfectly voluntary act in his part, and are therefore of opinion that after such great and unexplained delay in presenting his present petition there is no ground for their interference. There is nothing to prevent the re-employment of the petitioner in any branch of the public service.

Sir,
I have the honor to forward, herewith, an application for Pension for Mr. Narainasayer, late 4th Clerk of this Court.

The Applicant's first appointment in the Public Service was on the 10th August 1855. After a service of 13 years, 2 months and 21 days, he resigned the service on the 31st October 1868, it appears, through ignorance and fear of being dismissed, as certain papers, which were in his charge as Nazir of the District Court of

of Tranquebar, were missing and he was held responsible for the same. The High Court in disposing of his appeal observed that the missing papers were very unimportant; that there appeared to them nothing that would have justified his dismissal; and that there was nothing to prevent his re-employment in any branch of the public service.

Within 8 months from the date of the above order the applicant was employed as Head Gumastah of the Munsif's Court of Namakal, on the 7th December 1869; and he continued in the service without interruption up to the date of his retirement - 29th March 1882.

The applicant's total service amounts to 26 years, 7 months and 20 days, and that rendered before his resignation resignation, to 13 years 2 months and 21 days. As the resignation was evidently through a misapprehension on his part, and as his character and past conduct are very good I recommend that his past service may be counted towards pension.

I have the honor to be,

Sr,

Your most obedient servant,

Sy. District Judge.
