SIR,

With reference to your application for pension on behalf of M. Jagannatha Row Pentala, late Deputy Tahildar of Pohn, I have the honour to enquire why the leave of absence on private affairs enjoyed by the Applicant from 30th July to 14th September 1886 has not been shown in the History of Services and the period of such absence deducted from the total period of qualifying service. If the above period of absence amounting to one month and 15 days be deducted, the net period of service will amount to 29 years 11 months and 2 days or 28 days less than 30 years, the period required for the admission of a claim for a retiring pension.

I have to enquire therefore whether you have any objection to the present application being regarded as one for Superannuation pension, as the Applicant has completed his 55th year of age; and if so, I request that you will be so good as to forward a Certificate to the effect that the Applicant is inefficient owing
