READ—the following papers:—

From the Collector of North Arcot, dated 25th September 1882.
From the Accountant-General, dated 11th December 1882, No. 378-A.D.J.

ORDER—dated 19th December 1882, No. 1255, Pension.

Under Sections 102 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Tiruvatur Palla Srinivasulu Naidu, late First-class Revenue Inspector, Gudiyátam Taluk, North Arcot District, an invalid pension of Rs. (7-14-0) seven and Annas fourteen per mensem, payable at Chittoor, from 10th April 1882, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of seventeen years, eleven months, and ten days.

2. The Collector's recommendation of a pension of Rs. 8-14-2 is based on a calculation of the applicant's average emoluments, in which acting allowances drawn by him during the last five years of his service were erroneously taken into consideration.

Granting an invalid — of Rs. 7-14-0 per mensem to T. P. Srinivasulu Naidu, late Revenue Inspector, Gudiyátam Taluk, North Arcot District.

SIGNATURE OF THE HEAD OF OFFICE.

REMARKS BY HEAD OF OFFICE.

1. As to character and past conduct of Applicant. Good

2. Explanation of any suspension or degradation.

3. Regarding any gratuity or pension already received by Applicant. See Chapter XX.

4. Explanation under Section 47, Rule 1, so far as the Head of the Office can give it.

The Census took and sent pay certificates of the applicant are herewith forwarded. The cause of delay of 5 months in the submission of the application attributed by the A.C. collector to the fact that the service of the applicant in said office had to be verified by means of many other documents had also to be furnished to explain in the head of his service. The accompanying copy of letter No. 708 dated 27 Sept. 1882 from the A.C. collector is attached.

5. Any other remarks. 1882 from the A.C. collector.
The service of the applicant as detailed above have been duly established and the collector claimed is able to do and should be admitted on that the same way be admitted for pension.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT GENERAL.

378

CERTIFIED that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in ^{inferior} grades has been duly proved for 17 years 11 months and 10 days; and that an ^{inferior} ^{superior} ^{equal to 3 average months} ^{gratuity} pension not exceeding Re. 7-14-2 per month is admissible under Sections 102 & 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified.

It will be seen from the history of service that there is an unbroken connection in the service caused by dismissal, except from 11 October to 25 December 1877. But as the order of dismissal was ultimately reversed by the appellate authority and dismissal was followed by re-instatement the entire employment has not been received as unrequiring consideration by Government.

It should further be seen from the 14 pages of the application that the amount of pension proposed by the collector differs from that recommended in the 3 pages of this report. The difference is apparently due to the inclusion in the calculation of average emoluments of acting allowances drawn by the applicant during the last 5 years of his service which have properly been excluded from the calculation made by this office.

The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Collector in his remarks opposite to No. 1 on the 3 pages of the application.

In accordance with Rule 1, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

Sir

With reference to your letter No 1314
dated the 11th inst, I have the honor to state that the date of birth of P. Srinivasuluhaipudu in Column 6 of the first page of the Service Book was altered as both the Medical Officer and the applicant agreed that the age of the applicant
at the time of Examination was 55 (Vide Medical Certificate). As this alteration does not agree with record already existing, 1831
is now again inserted in the said column in line of 1826.

2. The Services of the applicant in many offices had to be verified by record, and many records had also to be overhauled to explain
the breaks in his Service; and hence the delay in the Submission of the pension.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue
dated 9th April 1878.

Read Petition No. 76 of 1878 from P. Srinivasulu Raidu, late ap. 1st class Revenue Inspector of Arcot Taluk, North Arcot
district, appealing against the Proceedings of the Collector dated 10th December 1877,
ordering the re-entertainment of Petitioner on an appeal preferred to him
against the order of the Sub collector dated 8th October 1877 dismissing Petitioner
from his office.

The intention of the Collector
appears to have been to give the Petitioner
the benefit of past service, but under the arrangement made, there has been a break entailing forfeiture under section 47 of the Pension Code.

Srinivasulu Raidu will be considered to have been absent on leave without pay, and shall be reemployed in his former post or in one of equal emoluments
from

from the date of the receipt of the order
the forfeiture of pay while on leave and the reduced allowances while employed as a 3rd Class Inspector will, in the opinion of the Board, be a sufficient punishment
for the irregularity committed.

The Petitioner will be referred to the Collector.

Revenue Appeal Case No 61 of 1977

15

Appellant

Respondent

Srinivasulu Nayudu

Read Appeal petition dated 9th
November 1977.

Read records received with the additional Sub-Collector's letter dated 1st December 1977, No 349.

Srinivasulu Nayudu, late Ag.

1st Class Revenue Inspector of the Gudriathum

Taluk. Appeals against the Additional Sub-Collector's order (vide the Leave list
submitted to him by the Gudriathum Talukdar) under which he was removed from his appointment, on the ground
that he absented himself from his station
without leave. He received, it appears, a Telegram communicating to him the news of his brother being dangerously ill at Bellary, and he left the Taluk
to proceed thither, sending in an application for leave, but without waiting to obtain orders thereon. This was highly irregular.

Even though his relative might have been dangerously ill, Srinivasulu Naidu was not justified in quitting his District without permission; and Section 16 Supplement; Civil leave code declares that absence without leave involves loss of appointment. Mr. Bliss in his letter dated 1st instant No 349, explains that he was inaccurate in stating in his order appealed against, that he dismissed the appellant, in as much as the absence without leave had of itself, entailed on Srinivasulu Naidu the loss of his appointment without the formality of a formal dismissal. From this, it is clear that the appellant has not been dismissed so as to disqualify him for re-employment in the public service, but he was simply forfeited his appointment by his own act in absenting himself without leave. The order passed by Mr. Bliss does not preclude the re-employment of Srinivasulu Naidu in the public service when some fitting opportunity occurs.

And when he is again so fortunate as to be furnished with an appointment, the penalty he has now inflicted on himself will, no doubt, have a wholesome effect upon him and teach him to pay greater attention to the Rules laid down for the guidance of officials.

Mr. Bliss will be requested to bear the petitioner in mind, and to consider his case favourably at some future date when a Gunacalan's post falls vacant.

Resolved that a copy of these Proceedings be forwarded to the Additional Subcollector for information and guidance.

Reply to Accountant General's Memo No 113 dated 18th October 1882 on the Pension application of C. P. Srinivasulu Nayudu, late 1st Class Revenue Inspector of Gudiyatam Taluq.
No 16. The appointment of 1st Class Revenue Inspector in which the applicant was acting from 1st February 1880 was fully vacant, and Subramaniya B. A., 5th Clerk of the Sub-collector's Office, who was confirmed as 1st Class Revenue Inspector of Gudiyatam Taluq and who was at the same time acting as Taluq Serishtadar of Breck Taluq, counted service in the appointment held by the applicant up to 27th February 1880. The vacancy occurred by the death of its permanent incumbent, Kandamali Pillai, on the 14th January 1880 and as the said Subramaniya B. A. held the post substantively up to 27th February 1880, the applicant was confirmed in it from the 1st March 1880.
