To

The Officer in charge of the Engineer's Dep^t Pamidi Estate.

Sirs

In enclosing herein 2 Vernacular Certificates received yesterday from the Deputy Director P. S. S. Pamidi Estate, I humbly beg to state that as I have previously stated to the Dy. Director & to his Sirastadar in person I am unwilling to apply for gratuity on the following grounds.

1. If I receive my gratuity now I will have to forfeit my past service or refund the amount of gratuity in the event of my succeeding in obtaining a permanent Gov^t Employment for the future.

2. Although I am fortunate enough to get a Gov^t Employment, I cannot expect that my

Pay

In A. M.

pay would be above 40 or 45 Rs; in that case if I am to refund the amount of gratuity by instalments out of that pay for the sake of counting my past service towards pension I will have (I think) to pay 15 or 20 Rs per mensem, which will really create great inconvenience in my domestic expenses.

3. As I have already asked leave for having the matter settled by consulting with the present Collector of this District (he being the officer who employed me in the Ganjam Panchayat) I cannot make up my mind either to agree or refuse applying for gratuity because I had already informed the then Deputy Director of the Panchayat & the Member of the Board of Rs. who was in charge of the Panchayat Depts. Madras my unwillingness to apply for gratuity.

Under the above circumstances I beg you to be good enough to ask the Deputy Director Panchayat to keep off my gratuity application for about a month as you are my present immediate Head of the office to whom I have recourse for my future prospects.

I beg to remain
Sir
Your most Obedient Servant

Sir,

In forwarding an application for gratuity on behalf of Mr. Ligan. ayga Rida Head Writer of the late Ganjam Party, I have the honour to state that the delay which occurred in submitting the same was owing to the applicants reluctance to apply for it as stated by him in his letter to the Engineer under whom he is now serving and the copies of the correspondence are enclosed. There are no more applications either for gratuity or pension to be submitted.

I have the honour to be

13TH MARCH 1882, No. 226, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—letter from the First Member, Board of Revenue, in charge of Revenue Settlement, dated 11th February 1882, No. 284-6.

READ—the following certificate and report from H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 21st February 1882, No. A.D.J.-475 :—

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for six years, seven months, and twenty-one days. The applicant now holds an appointment on the establishment of the Engineer in the Parlákimedi Estate, Ganjam, on pay equal to that which he was drawing while employed under Government. He is apparently unwilling to apply for the gratuity admissible to him for his services under Government simply because he anticipates some difficulty in refunding it if he should hereafter be re-employed under Government. It rests with Government to decide whether the gratuity admissible should be paid or not on the present application. If the decision be in the affirmative, the applicant may be granted a compensation gratuity not exceeding Rs. 270, equal to six months' pay, under Sections 100 and 109 (a) of Code.

2. The particulars required in Rules 1 and 6 under Section 100 of the Code are given by the Deputy Director of Revenue Settlement in his remarks opposite to No. 4 on the third page of the application.

3. The delay in the submission of the application is explained by the Deputy Director in his letter, No. 8, dated the 30th January 1882, accompanying.

4. In accordance with Rule 4 under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

ORDER—dated 13th March 1882, No. 226, Pension.

Under Sections 100 and 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Madireddy Lingamaya Naidu, late Head Writer, Revenue Settlement Office, Ganjam District, a compensation gratuity of Rs. (270) two hundred and seventy, equal to six months' pay, payable at Parlákimedi, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of six years, seven months, and twenty-one days.

2. The applicant's former unwillingness to accept the gratuity appears now to have been withdrawn.
