Memo

Applicants services were dispensed with on the 11th May 1874 owing to the abolition of Weighers post in the Sea Customs Office Calcutta. Up to this time he was in hopes of getting some other employment and did not think of asking for gratuity. He did once get a temporary ~~appointment~~ after being thrown out of the Weighers post but could not get no permanent employ. He has now made up his mind to apply for whatever amount he can get as gratuity on condition of repaying the amount if he should hereafter get a permanent Government Employ. Hence the application.

W. W. W. W.
Collector

Affidavit given on the 11th February 1881 before the Superintendent of Sea Customs Calcutta by Chandrad of Adinarayanappa abolished Weigher of the Superintendents Office.

I was upon on Rs. 11 pay in the Salt Office at Kanchabada to perform the duties of clerk from 5th July 1858 to 14th March 1862.

The post being abolished during the revision of the Salt Deptt, I was thrown out of employ and was afterwards employed as Weigher of the Sea Custom Office at Calicut from Nov 1866.
During the time I was in the post, I was appointed Asst. Clerk of the same Office for about four months after which I reverted to my post of Weigher on 10/7 and held it till 14 May 1874. The post being abolished my services were dispensed with from the 15th Idem and on the latter date I was appointed Asst. Clerk in the same Office for one month.
Now there are none who served with me during the time I was employed in the Salt Office. I have ever since been waiting in the Office in order to obtain any employment under Government my livelihood being dependant on Govt. Service and finding it hard to maintain myself, I apply for gratuity with an intention of refunding the same, when reemployed, under the resolutions of Govt. published in the District Gazette Vide No. 3827 dated 8 Sept 69 in para 4 of the Gazette dated 25 Sept 69 No 38 and para 6 of the Gazette No 12 dated 24 June 1871.

and an endorsement was given to him to the effect that he can have the first vacancy if he likes or if disinclined that he should apply for gratuity. Capt.
Farley recommends him warmly for a Jumustah's berth but the wisdom of ap-

as he knows no English, is an old man

answer well for some Estate appointment

A clear statement should be obtained from him whether in the event of a person's post being given him, that being the grade in which he was when his appointment was abolished, he would accept it. If he would not, he cannot be recommended for continuity.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

APR 441 I certify that qualifying service in Superior Grades has been duly proved for 9 years & 5 months and 28 days. But from the explanation furnished by the Collector in the 3 pages of the application and from the affidavit of the applicant accompanying, it is clear that the applicant refused to accept the appointment of a person which was offered to him. The application for a Compensation Gratuity cannot therefore be entertained. And G.S. resolution printed as a foot-note to the word "discharged" occurring in Section 100 of the Civil Pension Code should be Government has been pleased to take a favorable view of the case, the applicant may be granted a Compensation Gratuity not exceeding Rs. 21-00 equal to 3 months pay under Section 100 (a) of the Civil Pension Code & Edition. But such grant, it is respectfully pointed out, will meet the previous sanction of the Government of India in the Financial Department.

The particulars required by rules 1 and 6 of Section 100 of the Code are given by the Collector in his remarks opposite to No 4 on the 3 pages of the application. From G.O. No. 469 dated the 2nd April 1874, Revenue Department, under which the abolition of the applicant's appointment was effected, it will be seen that the abolition resulted in no saving to Government from the former; must be established but that there was a saving of Rs. 6-00 under Contingencies that amount is stated having been previously paid from Contingencies to Colly Swarup.

The great delay of upwards of 7 years in the submission of this application is explained by the Collector in the accompanying Memo.

READ—letter from the Collector of Ganjam, dated 19th September 1881.

READ—the following certificate and report from H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 2nd February 1882, No. A.D.J.-441:—

Certified that qualifying service in inferior grades has been duly proved for nine years, five months, and twenty-eight days. But from the explanation furnished by the Collector in the third page of the application, and from the affidavit of the applicant accompanying, it is clear that the applicant refused to accept the appointment of a peon which was offered to him. The application for a compensation gratuity cannot therefore be entertained (vide Government of India Resolution printed as a foot-note to the word "discharged" occurring in Section 100 of the Civil Pension Code). Should the Government, however, be pleased to take a favorable view of the case, the applicant may be granted a compensation gratuity not exceeding Rs. 21, equal to three months' pay, under Sections 100 and 117 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition). But such grant, it is respectfully pointed out, will need the previous sanction of the Government of India in the Financial Department.

2. The particulars required by Rules 1 and 6 of Section 100 of the Code are given by the Collector in his remarks opposite to No. 4 on the third page of the application. From G.O., No. 469, dated the 21st April 1874, Revenue Department, under which the abolition of the applicant's appointment was effected, it will be seen that the abolition resulted in no saving to Government from the permanent establishment, but that there was a saving of Rs. 6 under contingencies, that amount, as stated, having been previously paid from contingencies to cooly sweepers.

3. The great delay of upwards of seven years in the submission of this application is explained by the Collector in the accompanying memorandum.

ORDER—dated 13th March 1882, No. 227, Pension.

Under Sections 100 and 117 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Nangireddy Adinarayanappa, late Weigher in the Sea Customs Office, Calingapatam, a compensation gratuity of Rs. (21) twenty-one, equal to three months' pay, payable at Chicacole, Ganjam District, in consideration of his qualifying inferior service of nine years, five months, and twenty-eight days.

2. The Government do not consider that the post of a peon which was offered to the applicant was one which he could reasonably be expected to accept after having been all along doing the duties of a clerk, and his refusal therefore to take up that appointment can be no bar to the grant of the present gratuity.
