I have the honor to report on Board's Proceedings, No. 377, dated the 4th instant.

They do not claim a right to pension, and both understand that they are not held to be entitled to any. Seetharam Moodelly tells me that he has been all along under the impression that he is not entitled to any pension, and the other, Ragavalu Naidu, that he was doubtful. As they do not claim and the Chamber have declined to pay for any pension for them, I think the present arrangement for the preparation of the returns may be left as it stands.

Resolution—dated 8th March 1882, Mis. No. 2041.

Submitted for the information of Government with reference to G.O., dated 27th January last, No. 290.
