It should be remarked that in the history of service the applicant is shown to have been granted leave of absence on medical certificate for a period of 8 months from 1st March 1877. Yet this period, though inadmissible as service under Civil Regulations, has not been excluded as the applicant was at the time employed in the Military Department and under Military rules the period would appear to count as service. Para 8 of the Resolution of Govt of India in the Home Department No. 16 dated 9th January 1878, provided that a Hospital Assistant, who undertakes that Resolution, was transferred to the Civil Branch of the Subordinate Medical Service should count service for pension under the Civil rules. But the case above mentioned was enjoyed before this Resolution.
