SIR,

Fort Saint George.

I am transmitting herewith a letter from the Officiating Superintending Engineer, 1st Circle, received from the Examiner of Public Works Accounts under his Endorsement No. 1360 S.E. 1, dated 10th March 1882, enquiring whether men thrown out of employ in the reduction of February 1880 but who have obtained employment under Government within 3 months after their discharge, are at liberty to apply for Gratuities for their past services instead of reckoning the services towards future pension, I have the honor to state that the question raised offers 3 points for consideration:-

1st Whether pension or gratuity may be granted to a person who have obtained re-employment on a salary equal in amount to that which he was formerly drawing.

2. Whether pension or Gratuity may be granted to a person who has obtained re-employment on a salary which is less than that which he was formerly drawing.

3. Whether pension or Gratuity may be granted to a person who has obtained re-employment on a lower salary, but with a favorable prospect of recovering his former position.

2. In regard to the 1st point, I am of opinion that no pension or Gratuity should be granted, since the applicant has surely have suffered any material hardship caused by loss of office for so short a period as 3 months, during which time it must be remembered they drew full pay.

3. With regard to the 2^d point, I have to state that since under the provisions of Section 100, rule 5, of the Civil Pension Code, when an Officer upon the abolition of his own appointment, is transferred to another appointment, a Compensation pension (the word pension includes Gratuity) may be simultaneously awarded to him, subject always to the limitation prescribed in Section 177. I am of opinion that compensation pension or Gratuity may in this case be granted provided the pay of the new appointment added to the pension or pensionable value of the Gratuity calculated according to the scale laid down in Table A, Appendix I does not exceed the Officer's former pay, but the retention of any portion of the Gratuity will involve the loss of the right to count any portion of an Officer's previous service for pension.

4. Any claim for pension or Gratuity on the part of an Officer whose case falls under Class 3 above specified seems to me to be barred by the Resolution of the Government of India printed as foot-note to the word discharged occurring in Section 100, and the 1st sentence of rule 1 under that section.

I have the honor to be,
Sir
Your most obedient servant
