and the gratuity was reduced under the provisions of Section 111 of the Code, agreeably to the 1st sentence of the 1st Note under Section 109 of the Civil Pension Code. This fact was noticed in this Office report on the case. But as Appasaunni's incapacity for further service was not owing to old age, I beg to state that he is entitled to the full amount of the Gratuity of Rs. 21-0-0

To
The Acting Under Secretary to Government,
Pension Department,
Fort Saint George.

Sir,
With reference to your Endorsement N^o 1859 dated the 15th December 1881, referring to me for report a letter from the Government of India, N^o 1886 dated the 9th Idem, remarking on certain entries in the statements of pensions and gratuities for the quarter ended 30th September 1881, I have the honor to state that the pay of the person on account of whose death an Extraordinary Family Pension of Rs. 5 a month was granted to Marigam is Rs. 17-8-4 per mensem. The information was omitted, as it had been hitherto, partly under a misconception, and partly because the application containing the information was not forwarded to this Office

Office until it was called for in October 1881.
I however beg to observe, that a separate Statement showing in detail the several grants of Extraordinary and Extraordinary Family Pensions and Gratuities annually submitted by this Office for transmission to the Government of India, agreeably to their order of 12th July 1879, &c. to 1877.

2 With reference to the enquiry made in (b), I beg to state that although Mrs.
Shannon's age at the time of admission into the Public Service was more than 25 years, her qualifying service began on the 1st July 1870 or 6 months and 20 days before 20th January 1871, the date prescribed in proviso under Section III of the Code, which would therefore seem to be inapplicable to the case. The period of 10 years 1 month and 14 days, shown in the Statements is the net period of qualifying service after deducting leaves &c.

3 With reference to the remarks (c), I beg to state that Appaswami's age at the time of retirement from the service was about 54 years. The Medical Officer attributed his incapacity for further service to "premature old age and general debility."

SIR,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt with your endorsements Nos 1105 and 1136 dated 2nd November 1881, of the Statements of Pensions and Gratuities for the quarter ended 30th September 1881 and to communicate the following remarks.

- (a) I am to point out that the pay of the deceased has not been given in the case shown in Statement XIV. and to request that it may be reported.
- (b) As it is stated that the age of the applicant in the case of entry No 28 in Statement VIII was more than 55 years and as she appears to have entered the service of Government after attaining the age of 25 years, and subsequent to the 20th January 1871, I am to enquire whether her Invalid Gratuity should not have been reduced agreeably to the rule contained in the Proviso to Section III of the Civil Pension Code.
- (c) I am to point out with reference to entry No 44 in Statement XI that as it is stated that the age of the applicant was less than 55 years
- has his incapacity for further service cannot, in accordance with the note under Section 109 of the Civil Pension Code, be held to be due to old age or natural decay from advancing years — and that his invalid gratuity was not therefore liable to reduction under the proviso to Section 111 of the Civil Pension Code.
