Disease or Medical reasons for considering the Man unfit. — This Ensign was sent down to Madras from Bhow for eyes and report as to his fitness or otherwise for further service. On examnⁿ, the following is his condition:— Both eyes are microphthalmic. In the left eye there is absence of the lens it having been removed by operation at this Hospital on 18 Jan'y 1879. With the right eye vision is very much impaired equaling only $\frac{1}{5}$: by the Ophthalmoscope the optic disc is found vertically and the arteries small and few in number; the choroidal coat congested and a general progressive atrophic state of the whole of the tissue of the eyeball; lens in a state of incipient opacity. He complains greatly of his incapacity to read after dark and is not confident of himself. Not likely, in my opinion benefited by further treatment I consider him unfit for further service. — Disease contracted in General Service; not the result of his own infirmity.
Summary and period of previous treatment, and opinion as to benefit to be derived from further treatment. No special treatment employed Not likely to benefit by further treatment.

CERTIFIED that I have carefully examined V. Narainaswamy Raju son of V. Venketrangam Raju a Civil Hospital Class 1st Class in the Subordinate Med Dept. His age is, by his own statement, 41 years, and by appearance, about 41 years. I consider V. Narainaswamy Raju to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind, or in the department to which he belongs, in consequence of Impaired vision.—
His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

17TH MAY 1882, No. 457, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—letter from the Superintendent, Eye Infirmary, dated 10th March 1882.

READ—the following certificate and report from H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 6th May 1882, No. A.D.J.-28 :—

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for nineteen years, eight months, and twenty-eight days, and that an invalid pension not exceeding Rs. 19-13-10 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, is admissible under Sections 53 (Exemption 1) and 102 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition). The calculations have been duly verified.

2. From the entry in the column of "remarks" on the second page of the application, the applicant would seem to have enjoyed sick or private affairs leave, or perhaps both, during the course of his service. As the leave must have been enjoyed during the period of his employment in the Military Department, the period of absence on such leave has not been deducted from the total period of his qualifying service with reference to the observation made by this office in its report, No. A.D.J.-500, dated the 9th March 1882, on the case of Venkatasamy Nayadu disposed of in G.O., No. 321, dated the 15th April 1882.

3. The character and past conduct of the applicant are reported to be unfavorable, and he is said to be of intemperate habits (vide entry opposite to No. 1 on the third page of the application). It rests, therefore, with Government to decide whether any, and if so what, reduction should be made in the amount of pension admissible under the ordinary rules with reference to Rule I, Section 65 of the Code.

ORDER—dated 17th May 1882, No. 457, Pension.

Under Sections 53 (Exemption 1) and 102 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Vellore Narrianasawmy Raju, late First-class Civil Hospital Assistant, an invalid pension of Rs. (19-13-10) nineteen, Annas thirteen, and Pies ten per mensem, payable at Madras from 23rd February 1882, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of nineteen years, eight months, and twenty-eight days.
