19TH MAY 1882, No. 462, PENSION.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

LETTER—from

THE ACTING SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF FORT ST. GEORGE,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

SIR,

I am directed to forward the accompanying case of Isaac James Janes, late Head Surveyor, No. 1 Party, Madras Survey, for the favorable consideration of the Government of India.

2. This man was invalided on the 25th January 1882 at the early age of thirty-four years on account of leprosy. His service in superior grades amounted to seventeen years, seven months, and twenty-three days, but of this six years, eight months, and sixteen days were non-qualifying—five years, three months, and thirteen days being service rendered before the age of twenty-two, and one year, five months, and three days being passed on leave—thus reducing his net qualifying service to ten years, eleven months, and seven days, for which he would ordinarily be entitled to a gratuity of Rs. 1,000 or ten months' pay, but the Medical Officer being of opinion that he has not the normal prospects of life, a pension of only Rs. 6-14-9, being the value of the gratuity calculated in accordance with Table A in Appendix E of the Civil Pension Code, is all that is admissible.

3. In view of the fact that a large portion of the service of Mr. Janes is disallowed simply on account of the early age at which he was first employed, but for which he would be entitled to a one-third pension of Rs. 33-5-4; that his incapacity for further service is owing to a terrible affliction; and that he is reported to have been steady and well behaved throughout his service, to have done first-rate work and borne an excellent character, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council would, as a special case, strongly recommend his being granted the usual gratuity of ten months' pay or Rs. 1,000 for his qualifying service of ten years, eleven months, and seven days, in lieu of the very small pension of Rs. 6-14-9 which is all that is strictly admissible, but which is quite insufficient for the maintenance of a man who has been drawing a salary of Rs. 100 a-month, until ill-health deprived him of the means of livelihood. As this appears to be peculiarly a case in which the strict operation of the rule would cause serious hardship, I am to request that the Government of India may be moved to accord to it the exceptional treatment which is specially provided for under the rule.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

OOTACAMUND,
19th May 1882.

Acting Secretary to Government.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—letter from the Superintendent, Madras Survey, dated 6th April 1882, No. 37-A.

READ—the following certificate and report from the Officiating Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 28th April 1882, No. A.D.J.—21 :—

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for ten years, eleven months, and seven days, and that an invalid gratuity not exceeding Rs. 1,000, equal to ten months' pay, will be admissible under Sections 102 and 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (the calculations have been duly verified) subject to the following remarks.

2. From the certificate granted by the Civil Surgeon, Coimbatore, it is apparent that the applicant has not the normal prospects of life in consequence of leprosy. He is therefore, under Section 99, Rule III, entitled to a pension only instead of a gratuity, and the pension calculated in accordance with the scale given in Table A, Appendix E, of the Code is Rs. 6-14-9 a-month, which therefore is all that may be sanctioned to the applicant under the provisions of the Code. Should Government, however, be pleased to accept the strong recommendation of the Superintendent, Revenue Survey, and to grant to the applicant a gratuity in lieu of a pension, overruling the authority quoted above, it is respectfully requested that that grant may be reported to the Government of India in the Financial Department for previous confirmation.

3. In accordance with Rule IV, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

ORDER—dated 19th May 1882, No. 461, Pension.

Under Sections 99, Rule III, 102 and 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Mr. Isaac James Janes, late Head Surveyor, No. 1 Party, Madras Survey, an invalid pension of Rs. (6-14-9) six, Annas fourteen, and Pies nine per mensem, payable at Coimbatore from 25th January 1882.

Sir

I am directed to forward the accompanying case of Isaac James James, late Head
Surveyor, No. 1 Party Madras Survey for the favorable consideration of the Govt of India.—

2 This man was invalidated on the 25th January 1882 at the early age of 34 years on account of Leprosy. His service in Superior Grades amounted to 17 years 7 months and 23 days, but of this 6 years, 8 months and 16 days were non-qualifying, 5 years 3 months and 13 days being service rendered before the age of 22 and 1 year
suspect

passed on leave thus reducing his net qualifying service to 10 years 11 months and 7 days, for which he would ordinarily be entitled to a gratuity of Rs 1000 or ten months pay, ~~if the Govt condoned a~~ ~~deficiency of 20 days he~~ ~~would get the usual eleven~~ ~~months pay~~, but the Medical Officer being of opinion that he has not the normal prospects of life a pension of only Rs 6-14-9 being the value of the gratuity calculated in accordance with Table A in Appendix B of the Civil Pension Code is all that is admissible.

In view of the fact that a large portion of the service of Mr. James is disallowed simply on account of the early age at which he was first employed, ^{but for which he would be entitled to a one-third pension of Rs 33.5.4;} that his incapacity for further service is ~~not~~ owing to ^{a terrible affliction;} ~~his irregular or~~ ~~intemperate habits~~ and that

to have done first rate work & borne an excellent character that he is reported to have been steady and well behaved throughout his service, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council would as a special case strongly recommend his being granted the usual

 a gratuity of 10 months pay or Rs 1000 for his qualifying service of 10 years 11 months and 7 days in lieu of the very small pension of Rs 6-14-9 to which he is all that is strictly admissible under the rules, - but which is quite insufficient for the maintenance of a man who has been drawing a salary of Rs 100 a month until ill health deprived him of the means of livelihood.
 As this appears to be peculiarly a case in which the strict operation of the rules would cause serious hardship I am to request that the Govt of India may be moved to ~~reconsider~~ accord with the exceptional treatment which is specially provided for under the rules.
