PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following Endorsement from Surgeon-General W. R. CORNISH, F.R.C.S., C.I.E., Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, to the Officiating Accountant-General, dated Ootacamund, 20th April 1882, No. O-10—2230 :—

Forwarded to the Accountant-General for favor of submission to Government.

2. The Hospital Assistant having completed thirty years' service is entitled to retire without appearing before an Invaliding Committee.

3. Service-book was not kept in consequence of his belonging, till within a few months, to the Military branch of the Subordinate Medical Department.

READ—the following certificate and report from the Officiating Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 11th May 1882, No. A.D.J.-40 :—

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for thirty years and one day, and that a retiring pension not exceeding Rs. 29-11-4 per mensem, equal to half average emoluments, is admissible under Exception 1, Section 53, and Sections 107 and 112 of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition). The calculations have been duly verified. It will be seen from the entry on the second page of the application that the applicant enjoyed special leave on three-fourths pay for six months, viz., from 1st October 1873 to 31st March 1874, as the leave was enjoyed during the period of his employment in the Military Department, the period of absence on such leave has not been deducted from the total period of his qualifying service, with reference to the observation made in this office report, No. A.D.J.-500, dated the 9th March 1882, on the case of Venkatasamy Naidu disposed of in G.O., No. 321, dated the 15th April 1882.

2. Although the net period of the applicant's qualifying service amounts to twenty-nine years and one day only, another year's service has been added to it with reference to G.O., No. 2038, dated 10th October 1879, making the total period of his qualifying service thirty years, and thus rendering him eligible for a retiring pension.

3. In accordance with Rule IV, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

4. The reason for non-submission of the applicant's Service-book is explained by the Surgeon-General.

ORDER—dated 23rd May 1882, No. 473, Pension.

Under Section 53 (Exception 1) and Sections 107, 109 (c) and 112 of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Tuga Venkatachellum Naidu, late 1st-Class Hospital Assistant, District Jail,
