4 th Gumastah in the Tellicherry Chunsifs Court	Permanent	"	7--		27 th May 1847-		Ramachandra Bhundary comes of a family who were of great wealth and influence in Malabar. Various letters he possesses from Mr. Duncan, formerly Governor of Bombay, and Mr. Spencer, President of the Board of Commissioners for Malabar, and other authori- ties, dated in the latter part of the last century, and addressed to his uncle Madhava Bhundary, and his grand-father Dewarchand Bhundary, show that these persons were held in high estimation by the representatives of the British power in Malabar, who acknowledged the good services they had rendered, and courted their assistance in reference to the troubles created by the Pyche Rajah. Ramachandra Bhundary is I believe in great poverty, and is urgent for employ, with which I should have provided him, according to his capabilities, if opportunity had offered.		15 th January 1848-	Promotion
