15TH JUNE 1882, No. 529, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From H. W. BLISS, Esq., Commissioner of Salt Revenue, to the Accountant-General, dated Madras, 28th March 1882, No. 2846.

Account Department.

I have the honor to forward, for submission to Government, an application for a superannuation pension of Rs. 10 on behalf of A. Subramania Pillai, late Sub-Inspector, 4th Grade, Levingepuram Factory, in the Tinnevely District, together with three enclosures as per margin.

1. Service Register.
2. Last Pay Certificate.
3. Statement of leave, from the Treasury Deputy Collector.

2. The delay of nearly three-and-a-half months in submitting the application is due to references made to local officers in connection with the applicant's service.

Certificate and Report from H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 20th May 1882, No. A.D.J.-45.

Certified that should Government, with reference to the explanation furnished by the Commissioner of Salt Revenue in his reply to this Office, No. A.D.K.-7, dated the 18th April 1882, be pleased to entertain the application for pension on behalf of the applicant, who was transferred to the pension list while under suspension, notwithstanding that exception (c) under Section 96 of the Civil Pension Code prescribes that suspension which has not been followed by reinstatement entails forfeiture of past services, qualifying service in superior grades will be duly proved for twenty-two years, nine months, and nineteen days; and a superannuation pension not exceeding Rs. 12-2-1 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, will be admissible under Sections 106 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code, 5th Edition.

2. With reference to the note recorded against the character and past conduct of the applicant opposite to No. 1 on the third page, the Commissioner of Salt Revenue proposes the grant of a pension of Rs. 10 only instead of Rs. 12-2-1 per mensem. It rests with Government to decide whether the recommendation should be accepted or not.

3. The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Commissioner of Salt Revenue in his letter to this Office, No. 2846, dated the 28th March 1882, accompanying.

4. In accordance with Rule 4, under Section 130, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

15TH JUNE 1882, No. 529, PENSION.

ORDER—dated 15th June 1882, No. 529, Pension.

Under Sections 106 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Satukudaiyar A. Subramania Pillai, late First Assistant Superintendent, Salt Factory, Levingepuram, Tinnevely District, a superannuation pension of Rs. (10-8-0) ten and Annas 8 per mensem, payable at Ambásam, from 6th December 1881, in consideration of his qualifying service of twenty-two years, nine months, and nineteen days.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

23rd February 1880, No. 130.

Pension.

Read the following papers:—

From the Collector of North Arcot, dated 10th June 1879.
" Officiating Accountant-General, dated 17th December 1879, No. A.D.J.—569.

ORDER THEREON, 23rd February 1880, No. 130.

Application is made for the grant of a pension on the inferior scale to Rachapoody Guruviah, lately a Gumastah in the Palmanér Taluk, North Arcot District.

2. The applicant entered the Government service as a peon in June 1842 and served in various capacities in inferior and superior grades until 18th March 1874, when he was suspended by the Collector for a year and until the occurrence of a vacancy which did not occur until December 1875. From that date he was employed as a Taluk Gumastah until superannuated in February 1878 and declared by the Division Officer unfit for further service at a time when, having obtained sick leave, he had overstayed that leave in consequence of ill-health. It was then believed that his service in superior grades would entitle him to a pension, but as this was found not to be the case he was subsequently placed before the Civil Surgeon who certified to his unfitness.

3. The Accountant-General considers that the applicant's service prior to the 18th March 1874 is vitiated by his not having been restored to office immediately on the expiration of a definite term of suspension, and his latter service by Section 55 (b) of the Pension Code "as recently revised" as he did not return to duty on the expiration of his leave.

4. As regards the first point the Government have ruled recently* in a similar case that suspension for an indefinite term —which is altogether irregular—does not deprive an applicant of the right to count his previous service, and as to the second they observe—

- (1) that R. Guruviah's appointment was not substantively filled until he was declared unfit for further service;
- (2) that his prolonged absence on leave was virtually authorised by the order, dated 6th of February 1878, deciding that he should be superannuated and appointing his successor; and
- (3) that the revised rule referred to by the Accountant-General was not in force at the time of the applicant's retirement.

5. The Governor in Council is therefore pleased to grant to Rachapoody Guruviah, late Gumastah, Palmanér Taluk, North Arcot District, an invalid pension of Rupees 4 per mensem, payable in Palmanér Taluk, North Arcot District, from the 7th February 1878, in consideration of his qualifying service of thirty-two years, eight months, and twenty-three days.

Dated November 25 1881 DivisionREAD letter from the Deputy Commissioner of Salt Revenue Southern No. 250 dated November 3, 1881, reporting on the petition of A. Subbarama Pillai, Assistant Salt Superintendent, Leningipuram Factory, appealing against the Deputy Commissioner's order suspending him for 6 months for refusing to go on board a vessel to superintend the loading of salt for the Beylaw Government.

The Commissioner remarks that even by the Assistant Superintendent's own account he argued with the Superintendent when ordered to go on boardship, saying that was not his turn &c. This of itself was an act of insubordination deserving of punishment. As, however, he has now been under suspension for some time and is about to retire, he may (but quite as an act of grace) be allowed to do so at once without waiting for the completion of the six months suspension ordered by the Deputy Commissioner.

No 45 Certified that should Government with reference to the explanation furnished by the Commissioner of Salt Revenue in his reply to this office No 12-2-1 dated the 18th April 1882, be pleased to entertain the application for pension on behalf of the applicant, who was transferred to the Pension List while under suspension, notwithstanding that exception (c) under section 96 of the Civil Pension Code prescribes that suspension which has not been followed by re-instatement ~~and~~ entails forfeiture of past service, qualifying service in Superior Grades will be duly provided for 22 years 9 months and 19 days; and a superannuation pension not exceeding Rs. 12-2-1 per Annum equal to 2/3 average emoluments will be admissible under Sections 107 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code. nil

With reference to the note recorded against the character and past conduct of the applicant of 14/10/81 on the 3rd page, the Commissioner of Salt Revenue proposes the grant of a pension of Rs. 10-0-0 only instead of Rs. 12-2-1 per Annum. It rests with Government to decide whether the recommendation should be accepted or not.

The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Commissioner of Salt Revenue in his letter to this office No 2846 dated the 28th March 1882 accompanying-
