Letter to the Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, dated 13th May 1882, No. 446.

From R. LOGAN, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Simla, 16th June 1882, No. 1746.

In reply to your letter, No. 446, dated 13th May 1882, I am directed to state that an invalid pension of (Rs. 75) seventy-five a-month, equal to half average emoluments, is granted to Mr. G. W. M. Taylor, late Head Accountant, Army Clothing Department, Madras, in lieu of the pension of one-third of average emoluments already sanctioned by the Government of Madras. The Order of the Government of Madras permitting Mr. Taylor's service from 1st September 1856 to 18th July 1857 to be treated as pensionable service, is confirmed, and the interruption in Mr. Taylor's service, from 19th July to 31st December 1857, is condoned.

2. I am, however, to point out that the Government of Madras was not competent to decide that Mr. Taylor's service, from 1st September 1856 to 18th July 1857, shall be treated as pensionable service.

3. The original enclosures of your letter are herewith returned.

Extract (paragraph 1) forwarded to the Accountant-General, Madras, for information and guidance.

ORDER—dated 6th July 1882, No. 589, Pension.

Mr. G. W. M. Taylor is entitled to the difference between the higher rate of pension now sanctioned by the Government of India and that granted by G.O. of 13th May 1882, No. 445.

2. The arrears due to him will be disbursed accordingly.
