Sir,

With reference to your letter No. ADK/109 of 12th August 1881, I have the honour to inform you that the services of the retired Officer Rama Rao (Except those in the Postal Department) have been verified from the Pay Abstracts kept in the Huzoor. The chief personal marks given by the Deputy Collector Mayavera are given below.

1st Three Scars, two on the right and one on the left leg below the knees.

2nd A wart below the right arm-pit.

2. It is reported that the applicant's name is not traceable in the annual returns of 1859 as he was then a Gumastah in the temporary Special Assistant Collector's Office and no returns were sent in those days for temporary Establishments.

3. As regards No 24, I beg to enclose Copy of para 3 of the Treasury Deputy Collector's letter No 4743 dated 27th October 1881, from which it will be seen that the applicants services from 1st July 1860 to 29th February 1864 have not been verified here for want of records.

4. I have called upon the Deputy Collector Mayaveram to take the affidavit of the applicant on plain paper and also Collect such Collateral evidence as may be procurable under rule 5 of section 127 of the Pension Code, and I shall forward the same to you when received if you deem it necessary.

5. The enclosures are returned.

I am acquainted with the Mayavaram Deputy Collector's late Head clerk, Râma Row, now present, from a long time. In the year 1860, I and Râma Rão were employed as munshis (clerks) in the then Deputy Collector, Râma-Iyengâr's office. On the revision of establishment in 1860,

Rama Rao was made District
Postal Javabinivis on Rs 20.
From that time he was not only doing duty in the Collector's as well as in the Assistant Collector's Offices but was also doing duty in the Mannargudi Deputy Collector's office even after my transfer to that office. When we were doing duty in the Deputy Collector's office in the year 1864,
(month and date I don't remember) Rama Row was transferred to the Collector's office as a clerk.
Even though he was transferred to the Collector's Office, still he was doing duty in the said Deputy Collector's Office. I solemnly declare that I am fully

fully aware of the fact that Rama
Row was employed as District
Postal Jabavinivis without interrupt

Postal Jabavaninis. He held the post of District Postal Jabavaninis without interruption and was doing duty in the Collector's office as well as in the Mannargudi Division, till he was appointed 8th Vernacular clerk on 1st March 1864. The salary of that appointment is Rs 20. As I was then a clerk in the Collector's (Huzur) office, I solemnly declare that I am fully aware of this fact. He was also doing duty in the Assistant Collector's office for a short time.
