No. 265

Office of Zillah Surgeon,
Madura, 19 September 1881.

Certified that I have carefully examined Meenatchi Sundramier son of Subbarayer, 1st Grade Revenue Inspector Palney Taluq in the Madura District.

His Age is according to his own statement 53½ years and by appearance about 55 years.

I consider Meenatchi Sundramier to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the department to which he belongs in consequence of general debility and dimness of sight.

His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

Zillah Surgeon.

Judgment.

1 This is a charge brought forward by the Acting Tahsildar of Palni against the village Munsiff of Parathipur for fraud in money dole distribution and for falsifying his accounts and against the 1st class Revenue Inspector of Tagarai Firka for abetting the said falsification. I have struck the charge against the Revenue Inspector and the latter charge against the Munsiff out of consideration on the criminal side because I attribute the action of the former to carelessness only and that of the latter is so intimately connected with the principal charge as to form part of the evidence in its support.

2. The charge of criminal misappropriation rests on these facts:—

The

S. No 803C
1887
Revision of Judgment
[illegible] letter
[illegible]

The Tahsildar inspected the village on the 11th August; he found that 82 persons had been fed on the 8th August; that the Nominal roll had not been written up since that time and that 27 persons had been entered in a list made out by the curnum on the 10th August as new comers. The Tahsildar further on inspecting the food distribution found that after all the paupers were fed there was a balance of food sufficient to fill 47 large cups. The Tahsildar then took the Nominal rolls home with him but took no action towards the Nattamgar's suspension or towards further enquiry in the matter. Some few days afterwards the (Revenue Inspector 2nd accused asked the Tahsildar for the rolls to enable the 1st accused to fill in the forms for the weekly report he he was bound to send. The rolls were given to him and were detained for a long time until the Tahsildar actually sent for them when they were found by him to have been tampered with by the removal of certain sheets and the substitution of others and he found that 109 persons instead of 82 appeared in the roll for the 9th August.

3. The arguments of the Tahsildar on which the prosecution is founded are (1) that the curnum only ordered the addition of 27 persons on the 10th August and that the Curnum's statement is corroborated by that of the accused who in his statement made at the time and place to the Tahsildar said that he admitted the persons on the 12th August (yesterday the date of examination being August 11th). (2) that the over supply of food was due to the suddenness of the enquiry which prevented the Nattamgar knowing how many persons were present and that he therefore boiled enough grain to be sure of a margin and (3) that the tampering with the rolls is corroborative of guilty knowledge.

4. I cannot endorse any of these arguments. The 1st is at first sight most difficult to get over but the other evidence in the case does not consist with it for the Tahsildar had 2 lists made on the spot by the Revenue Inspector 2nd accused and 6th witness of all the persons on relief with the date of their admission and this list comprises 112 persons of whom 87 declare that they were on relief for more than 3 days 20 that they received pay 2 days 4 that they were entered on the "day before yesterday" and one "yesterday". Doubtless some of these persons do not tell the truth but it would be exceedingly unsafe to convict the Nattamgar of having had fewer than 109 persons on the 9th August because he used the word yesterday on the 11th August and because the Curnum drew out a list on the 10th August.

5. On the 2nd point no conclusion can be arrived at. The Nattamgar was kept apart during the distribution of food and was not allowed an opportunity of explaining appearances against him. This action on the part of the Tahsildar I consider to have been a mistake and to have made the enquiry more difficult. It is not a logical conclusion at which the Tahsildar has arrived with regard to the accused's conduct because there was excess food. I do not think that it is even shown that the accused had any thing to do with giving out the supplies on that day. At all events according to the case as put he knew that 109 persons were to receive food and why he should have put food for more does not appear in any way. Neither on pains I can I discover any particular motive in support of the criminal charge from accused's conduct. The registers were blank on the 9th and following dates when the Tasildar took them away and if they were to be tampered with they might as far as appears have been tampered with as they stood. I believe that they have been tampered with undoubtedly, from the Tahsildar's evidence which shows that lines in the book were marked with blue pencils when given to the Revenue Inspector and in ink when returned and from the internal evidence in the book itself which shows that several pages were written up at one time and also that new pages were stitched in (as appears by the stitching marks) amid old pages. The reason for this is not apparent and no use can be made of it in a criminal case though the fact requires to be dealt with departmentally.

thing

OF THE HEAD OF OFFICE.

6. Both the accused are discharged.

On the facts set forth for the reasons stated in this calendar I find that Gurugnama: sivaya Moodaly tampered with a document (the Nominal roll of his village for famine relief) intrusted to him for making up his accounts by substituting whole pages freshly written up for those which were in the document when it was intrusted to him and I direct that he be dismissed from his office of Munsiff and Nattamgar of Parithipur village
