Proceedings of the Commissioner of Salt Revenue, Southern Division dated April 14, 1880.

READ letter from the Asst. Commissioner of Madras,
No. 118 dated 7th April 1880, reporting two cases of overstorage in heaps stored by Chidambaram Pillai, formerly a clerk in the Vairavunadapatam Factory, and now Assistant Superintendent of Vattanam, with Chidambaram Pillai's explanation.

The facts of the first case are as follows:-
Five heaps bearing the numbers 17, 18, 19, 20 and 21 of 1877-78 were recently sold at Vairavunathapattam with this result, that, whereas in Nos 17-20, there was a wastage of from 29 to 39 maunds, in No 21 there was an excess of 6 maunds. The person that stored No 21 was found to be Chidambaram Pillai, lately a clerk at that Factory, but now Assistant Superintendent of Vattanam, and the Assistant Commissioner called on him for his explanation of the excess. The explanation given was that the excess must be put down to the inaccuracy of the machine, with which the heap was

was weighed when stored, a ten-maund platform machine.

2 Now it is, the Deputy Commissioner believes, a fact that the old platform machines were not so accurate as those now in use, and if No 21 had been the only heap stored by means of that machine, or if the difference between the weight of No 21 and the other heaps stored and sold at the same time with it were slight, it would be impossible to find fault with Chidambaram Pillai's explanation. Unfortunately, however, for Chidambaram Pillai, No 21 was not the only heap stored with the old machine, and the difference now found to exist between heap No 21 and the other four heaps stored and sold under the same circumstances, is not small, but very large, viz. from 35 to 45 maunds. In the absence of any special reasons, which as they are not given, may be presumed not to have existed, the heaps Nos 17-20 would not have wasted any faster than No 21, and the difference between No 21 and

and the others would, therefore, be much the same now as at the time of storage. This difference was found at the sale to be from 35 to 45 maunds, that is to say, heap No 21 was 45 maunds heavier than No 17, 35 maunds heavier than No 18, 39 maunds heavier than No 19, and 44 maunds heavier than No 20. To say that the machine could have caused such a tremendous difference in the case of one heap, when it made all the others pretty much the same is absurd.

3 It is a clear case of wilful overstorage in the part of Chidambaram Pillai, and the explanation attempted is false.

4 Next, as to the second case, the Assistant Commissioner also examined two heaps at Vattanam, stored by Chidambaram Pillai, since his transfer to that place, and found an excess of 3 maunds in one of them, and a wastage of 46 maunds in the other, though both heaps were, within nine days, of exactly the same size. Chidambaram Pillai's explanation again was that the machine used in storage, an eight-maund grainier's pan scale, was responsible. The Assistant Commissioner does not accept this explanation.

and indeed if such explanations were accepted there would be an end to all punishment for fraud. It is absurd to say that any machine could make a difference of 49 maunds between two heaps weighed under the same circumstances.

5 Ghidambaram Pillai has clearly been guilty of overstatement in both cases, and his explanation in each case is perfectly worthless and only aggravates his offence.

6 Ghidambaram Pillai is reduced to the grade of a clerk at Rs. 15. Further Ghidambaram Pillai is 53 years of age. The clerk Gommar Madura will be requested to report whether he is physically fit for the post.

I know Chithambaram Pillai, the present clerk of Morekolau factory. When I was the Head Voyasam in the Salt Head office Ramnad, the said Chithambaram Pillai was appointed as Sathalmarasami in the same Head office on a salary of Rs 4. He was working there for one year and afterwards was transferred to Factory appointments.
I do not now remember exactly in what year he was at first appointed. It was probably after the year 1850. From the time of his appointment up to the year 1864 in the beginning of which year I was pensioned. He continued in Government service without any break in the middle.
I was doing duty in the Head office till 1862, and I therefore knew that he was in continued service.
I do not remember what appointments he held and how long he was holding each appointment.

Affidavit taken from Chithambanum Pallai, clerk of Morekolum Factory, before W. E. Srinivasulu Pallai Salt Asst Commissioner Madurai Dt.

"I was born on the 3rd Chithirai of the year Parthiva which corresponded to the 13th April 1826. My age at the end of ^{February} 1882, was 55 years, 10 months and 16 days. I am no longer able to work hereafter.

I was appointed Sader vared Asanai (Gumastan) in the Government Service on a salary of Rs 4 in the Salt Head office Canniadam on the 16th December 1855, and was doing duty there till 2nd August 1857. This is known to the late Head Clerk Dorasammy Sengavar, who is now pensioned and also to Kilanagum, a pensioned Salt person.

The fact that I was from the 3rd August 1857 to the 10th January 1864, employed as a Shroff on a Salary of Rs 7, in the Vattanam Salt Factory is also known to the said Dorasammy Sengavar. The Branch Treasury records at Canniadam may also be referred to during the period.
I was holding the Shroff's appointment. I was on many occasions acting as Salt Supt. The details are

During the above period I was from the 11th January February 1866 employed as Superintendent of Phokhadi Division. The said Vallam then to this fact also.

After the abolition of the factory (Phokhadi)
I was appointed as Throff of Morekolam on the 14th February reduced salary of Rs 12. Thereafter I produce a copy of your Order No 124 dated 2.11.66. I continued on the 16 November 1867. During the above period the following acting appointments:

From the 14th February 1867 to the 15th March 1868, I was Superintendent of Vallam and drew half pay for 2 months, and full pay for the remaining time be proved by the Pay Abstracts in the Collector's at Vallam Factory.

Order of the Salt Dy Collector was issued on the 1868 appointing me as Acting Superintendent of Vallam. As I had to carry all my household things to Vallam, I took charge of the work at Mantar But I was not paid for the joining work done. I was not about there then.
I beg therefore that you will be good enough to reckon that period as leave on forfeit.

(10) I delivered charge of Mantar on the 27th September and resumed charge of Throff at Morekolam on the 2nd October, but before my arrival, the Pay Abstract of September, had been sent up to the higher office, my substitute Sivagomrathappa's name having been entered as Throff for the whole month, and accordingly approved and, therefore my name for the last 3 days of September, 1868, did not appear in the Pay Abstract. When I claimed pay for the 3 days, the Superintendent of the factory, stopped payment of the 3 day's pay to my substitute and sent an arzi to the ^{Salt} Dy Collector, requesting compliance with my request, and upon his order to to pay me for the 3 days, I was paid. This order can be found in the ~~in~~ records of Morekolam factory and I beg that you will be pleased to refer to it. I think this was omitted to be entered in the Pay Abstract.

(11) From the 30th October 1868 to the 29th August 1869
I had been drawing full pay of Rs 20, as Asst Superintendent of Morekolam as the permanent incumbent had taken leave on forfeiture of full pay.

(20) I had been acting as the Asst Subt of Attankur and drawing Rs 35 from the 2nd September 1872 to the 31st October 1872 and Rs 50 full pay from the 1st November 1872 to the 27th July 1873. The Pay Abstracts of Attankur will prove this.

(21) I had acted as Subt of Vairavathapattanam from the 17th April 1873 to the 21st May 1873 receiving deputation allowance as usual.

(22) I had received deputation allowance as Asst Subt of the same factory from the 2nd September 1873 to the 31st December 1873. In regard to these dates, Pay Abstracts of the factory may be examined.

The rest of the period of my service, has been entered in service register and attested.

You have received full pay when you served as Asst Subt of Vairavathapattanam. Where had the permanent officer gone then? Then he had been sent to act for Attankur.

When I received the full pay (entered in 19th April) officer had taken leave on forfeiture of full pay. On the 17th April 1880, I was degraded from the post as Asst Subt on Rs 20 to that of a clerk on a salary of Rs 15 per month. Mr Jawant the Dy Commr was degraded in 1875 for no other fault of mine but was found that an excess of 6 maunds was found in one of the heaps stored by me in Vairavathapattanam Factory. In fact there was no excess but a wastage of 6 maunds. Had I appealed on this ground, I would have got a favorable order. You will know the truth of the fact if you refer to the records of the case. But with a sense of obedience to the orders of Superiors, I did not appeal. The certificates that I hold from the late Dy Collector (Ramaswamy Mudaliar) and Vengal Pillai, will speak for my honesty and my aversion to unlawful gain as a Govt servant. My character is also known to you as I have served under you for two (2) years.

The Pay Abstract of Morekolan Factory has an entry of Rs 100 for you as Sheriff of the 30th and 31st August 1879, but how is that your name appears in the list from the Treasury Dy Collector's office as Asst Superintendent of Morekolan on above mentioned 2 days.
