Resolution, No. 715, dated 21st February 1881, regarding the proposal to abolish the Currency Circles of Cocanada, Nagpur, and Akola.

Letter No. 1414, dated 22nd April 1881, from Government of Bombay.

" " 1175, " 23rd June " of Madras.
" " 924-49, dated 22nd March 1881, from Chief Commissioner, Central Provinces.

RESOLUTION.—It appears that, as far as the Nagpur and Akola Circles are concerned, the Local Governments and the representatives of the commercial interests have no objection to their proposed abolition. As regards the Cocanada Circle, the only objections are urged by the Cocanada Chamber of Commerce, which looks upon the abolition of the circle as a retrograde movement and one which, by restricting the amount of money in circulation, will impede the development of trade in the district. The Governor-General in Council does not anticipate any such result, and agrees with the Local Government in the opinion that the grounds urged are not strong enough to justify the retention of that circle.

2. His Excellency in Council has therefore determined to give immediate effect to the proposal to abolish these circles, and to include Berar and the Central Provinces in the Bombay Circle of Issue. A notification, under the Paper Currency Act, 1871, will accordingly be issued abolishing these three circles and defining the new Circles of Issue. Currency chests will be kept up temporarily at Nagpur, Akola, and Cocanada in order to pay off notes already issued, which may hereafter be presented for payment. The Head Commissioner of the Department of Issue of Paper Currency and the Comptroller-General respectively will issue any subsidiary orders which may be required in order to give effect to the above orders, and to afford all reasonable facilities to the public for the encashment of notes at Nagpur, Akola, and Cocanada.

Ordered, that this Resolution be communicated to the Governments of Madras and Bombay; the Chief Commissioner, Central Provinces; the Commissioners of Issue of Paper Currency, Madras and Bombay; and the Deputy Commissioner of Issue,
