To the Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, dated 10th November 1881, No. 1194.

From R. LOGAN, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, to the Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George, Pension Department, dated Calcutta, 16th January 1882, No. 241.

In reply to your letter, No. 1194, dated 10th November 1881, I am directed to say that a compensation gratuity of Rs. (420) four hundred and twenty is granted to Arooloo Assary, late Carpenter Maistry in the late Nilgiri Division of the Public Works Department, Madras, in lieu of the gratuity already granted to him.

2. In the next edition of the Codes a note will be inserted under Section 90 of the Civil Pension Code to the effect that service as a Maistry in the Public Works Department, if the salary drawn is not less than Rs. 25 a month, shall be deemed to be superior service.

3. The original enclosures of your letter are herewith returned.

Copy forwarded to the Public Works Department for information and to the Accountant-General, Madras, with reference to his letter to the Government of Madras, No. J.A.E.—296, dated 14th September 1881.

ORDER THEREON, 27th January 1882, No. 75.

Communicated to the Public Works Department, Examiner of Public Works Accounts, and to the Accountant-General.

2. Arooloo Assary is entitled to the difference between the higher rate of gratuity sanctioned by the Government of India and that granted in G.O., of 10th October 1881, No. 1035. The difference will be disbursed to him accordingly.

Sir, Madras, 13th July 1882.

With reference to your letter of the 29th ultimo, I have the honor to state as follows:-

2. In para 2 of G.O. Pension Department No. 332 dated 17th April 1882, this office was requested to report for the revised order of Government any cases which were affected by the principle contained in G.O. Pension Department No. 255 dated 16th March 1882, and with reference to this request the Executive Engineers concerned were asked to furnish me with information as to the nature of duties performed by retired Maistries, Dyasammy Pillay and Chockalingum Pillay in order to determine whether their gratuities should also be calculated on the Superior Scale.

3. Copies of letters received from the Executive Engineers on the subject were merely forwarded for the information of
